

HONORARY CARDS

The Library Board may by special resolution confer an "honorary" library card to persons whose use of Rockford Public Library is connected with outstanding contributions to benefit the people of Rockford and who thereby represent the importance of Rockford Public Library to the community. Honorary library cards may be conferred without regard to the residence of the recipient and shall remain in force without regard to current residence. Honorary library cards shall be renewed automatically during the lifetime of the honoree unless surrendered by the honoree. The Library Board shall reserve right to revoke honorary library cards.
