

SAFETY

Rockford Public Library is concerned about the health and welfare of all employees. Therefore, it is the policy of the Rockford Public Library that no employees work alone at any library facility. Staff scheduling must be arranged in such a way to ensure that there is always a minimum of two library employees in the building during all open hours.