KEELING'S PHARMACY

☪ A handsome public library building was erected in 1902 at a cost of $80,000. It was a gift from Andrew Carnegie. Thousands of volumes are on the shelves lending aid to the institutions of learning, the social and intellectual clubs, as well as hundreds of working people who have felt its influence.

☪ Another building worthy of note, built in honor of Rockford's brave sons who fought and died for their Country's Flag, is Memorial Hall, dedicated in 1902 by Theodore Roosevelt.

Near the Library and Memorial Hall in Water Work's Park is the pumping station. Fine artesian water taken from the bowels of the earth, hundreds of feet below the surface, furnishes the supply. The pure water is Rockford's strongest good health factor.

The city is beautified by numerous parks, large and small. Some have the banks of the river to add to their beauty while others are dependent upon the natural attractiveness of the land, but all add materially to the comfort and happiness of the people.

Amid these unusual surroundings stands our city of 46,000 inhabitants, easily accessible by the Chicago and North-Western, Milwaukee and St. Paul, Illinois Central and Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroads. The center of a net work of interurban lines, bringing the city into close touch with Freeport, Belvidere, Pecatonica, Beloit, Janesville and other towns within a radius of 30 miles.

A wheel of prosperity is this section of the country with Rockford for its hub.

FACE TO FACE TALK

Have you ever tried CAMELLINE, for the complexion, Sunburn and Tan? Camelline is the celebrated California liquid face preparation, which imparts to the skin, a natural, youthful appearance, and a velvet texture, without showing its application. It is absolutely pure. It does not contain lead, zinc, mercury, or any substances injurious to the complexion, as do most other liquid preparations. It does not rub off, blow off, fall off or come off, and as it contains no animal fat or vegetable oil, it will not grow hair.

Ellen Terry, Adelina Patti, Maude Adams and Julia Marlowe use Camelline for the complexion. Why don't you?

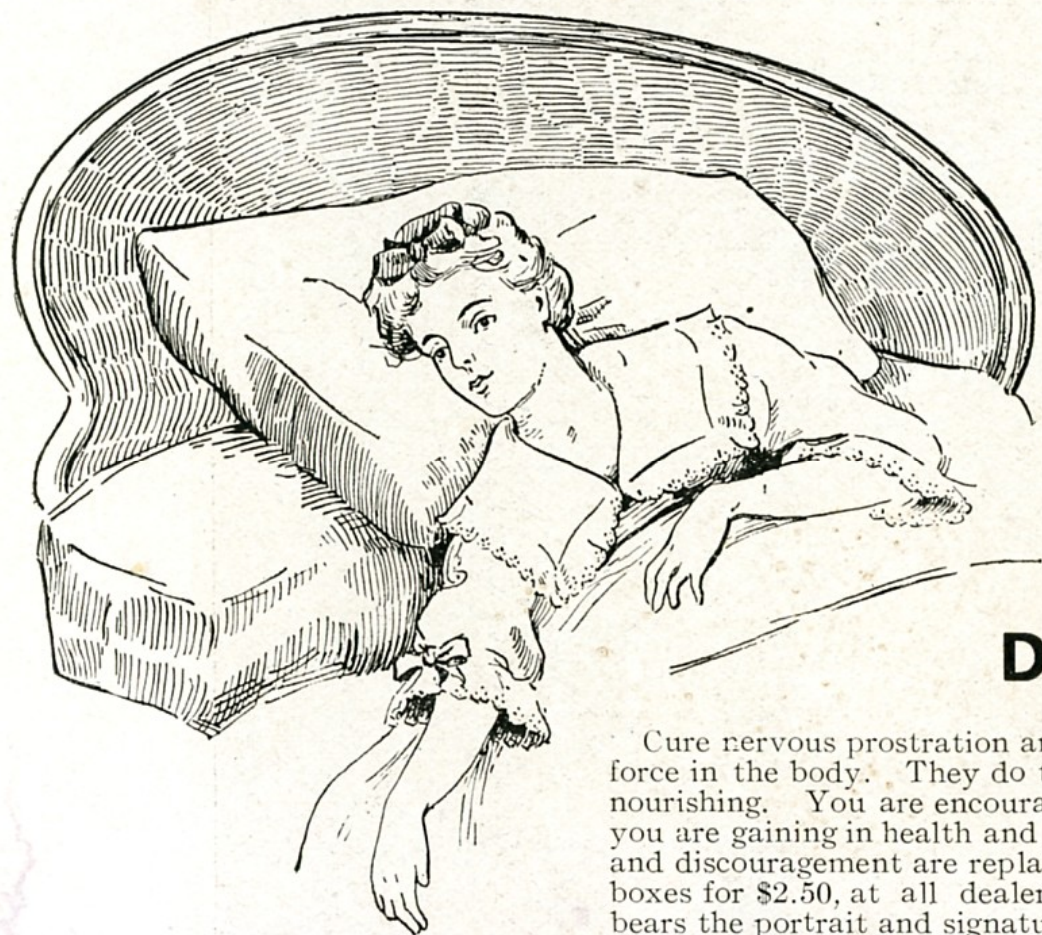

At the Jamestown Exposition "Camelline" was awarded against all competitors, Grand First Prize and Gold Medal for purity and general excellence. Camelline has been awarded Gold Medals wherever exhibited, and for over 30 years has been the peer of all liquid face preparations.

Camelline is sold all over the civilized world, by druggists and perfumery dealers, and is kept in Rockford by West End Pharmacy.

You feel weak, down-hearted and discouraged, it may be. What can be more discouraging than the slight improvements and set backs which attend this disease.

But you have not used Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills. You do not realize how naturally, gradually and certainly they instill new vitality into the exhausted nervous system. Possibly you do not know of their truly wonderful record in the cure of nervous prostration.

MRS. J. H. KUCH, 671 Michigan Ave., Detroit, Mich., states:—

"I was so bad with nervous prostration that I was unable to do anything. The nervous system was entirely shattered—could not sleep—had no strength—completely exhausted. Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills produced a wonderful change. I sleep well now—appetite good—no headaches—am gaining in flesh—nerves are strong and steady."

Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills

You are encouraged to persist in this treatment because you can feel that each day you are gaining in health and strength. The nerve cells are rebuilt and revitalized and weakness and discouragement are replaced with new hope, new vigor and new health. 50 cents a box, 6 boxes for $2.50, at all dealers or Dr. A. W. JOHN H. PHELPS, Scranton, Pa.

May 13, 1904.

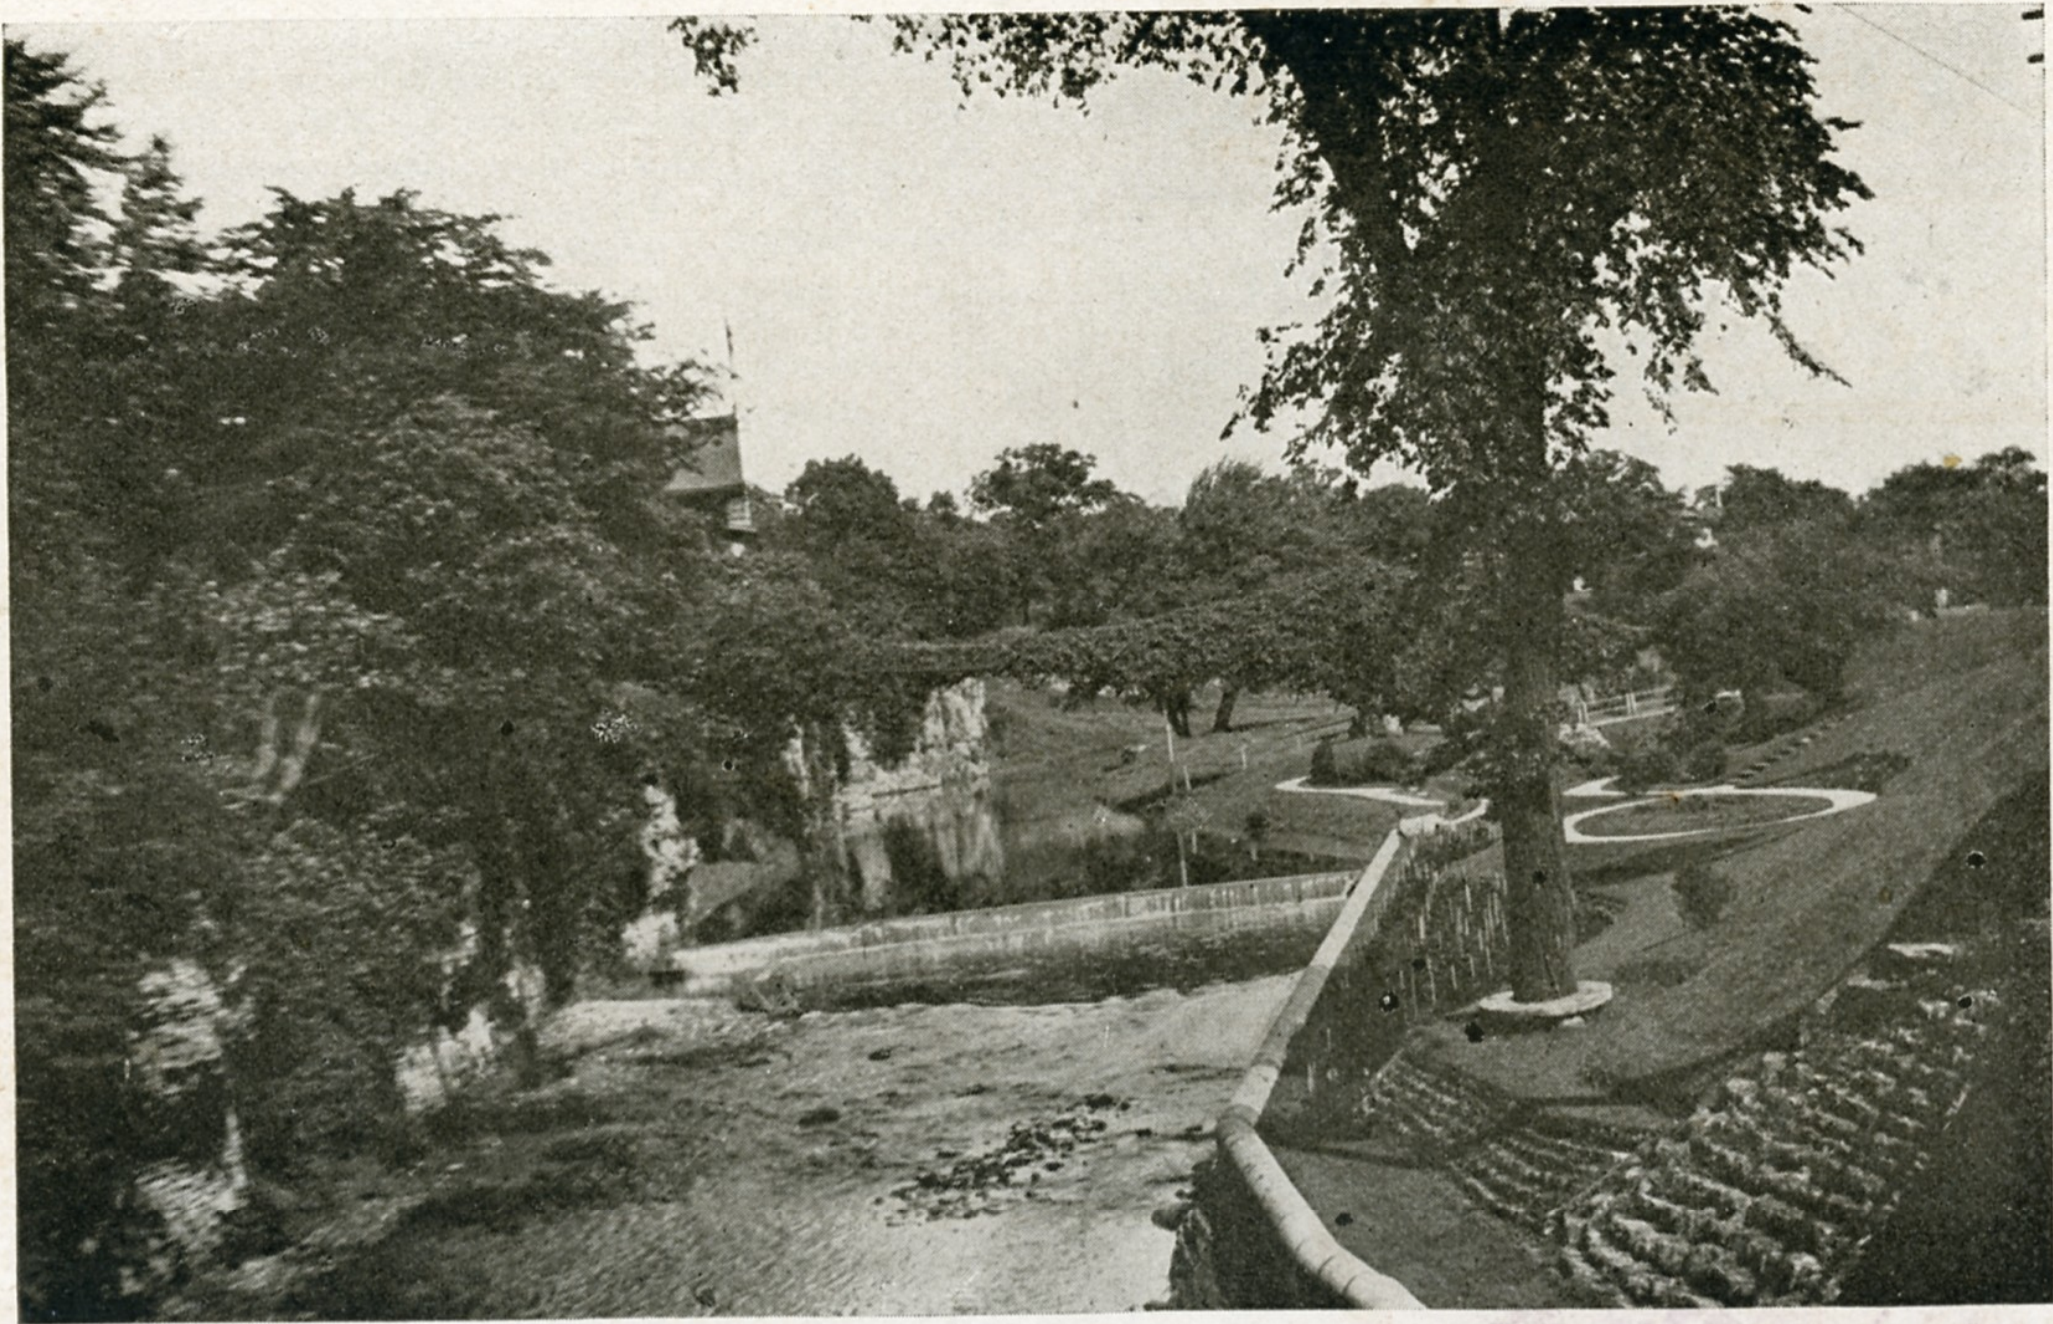

Gentlemen:—Your Night Caps were almost thrust upon me by a friend who evidently knows a thing or two. Shortly after the middle of last January I was in a state of almost complete nervous exhaustion, arising from excessive business effort, resulting in inability to sleep and mental depression. My physician for two months treated me, at a large expense, for nervous prostration, advising complete rest for an indefinite period. At that time a vacation was impossible. Fortunately for me, I was then introduced to Night Caps. Skeptically I tried them. One-half a box seemed to brace my nerves; within a week I could sleep. With sleep has come a return of normal health and I feel like myself again. I have recovered my normal weight. You may be very sure that I now keep Night Caps constantly on hand, particularly as an assistant in case of over-indulgence at table. If, at any time, you should deem it wise, or to your advantage, to refer any one to me, do so. I will be very glad to write inquirers about it. I would suggest, however, that you instruct them to enclose stamp for reply, for I have reason to believe that I might find myself financially embarrassed if inquiries come from all who need your remedy. Kindly withhold this letter from publication. Believe me,

Very truly yours,

(Signed) HARRY W. CROSS.

NOTE—Mr. Cross has kindly consented to the publication of this letter. SKEPTICAL PERSONS ARE FREE TO WRITE HIM, ENCLOSING A 2-CENT STAMP FOR REPLY. This is the fairest and most valuable guarantee ever given, coming as it does from a very conservative and prominent banker.

Our Families

depend for their welfare and comfort upon the love and care of the mother. She teaches the boys to grow up to good citizens and the girls to respect commanding women. She is the best friend of her husband and his true helpmate. Such work is exhausting and we often find women suffering immensely, but patiently performing their duties. They always need to have in their household a remedy which will preserve and increase their strength, dispel nervousness and keep their blood pure and rich. It should be a remedy which would be suitable for many maladies of the members of her family and we assure every lady that is the only family remedy which will give satisfaction in all cases. Why? This remedy is not a secret remedy; it is composed of the best red wine and a combination of the choicest herbs, imported from Europe. Everybody is welcome to inspect the laboratory at any time, in order to see for himself the cleanliness and care in the preparation of this great remedy. If you have any young girls pale, weak and sickly, without any energy, with constant headache, with backache and other pains, or if any of your family is suffering from stomach ache, colic, constipation, loss of appetite, nervousness, eruptions on the face or body, despondency, loss of memory, sleeplessness and general debility, rest assured that you will find no remedy in the world that will give more positive results than

Triner's American Elixir of Bitter Wine

While other medicines usually have a bad effect on the stomach, this remedy gives a great strength to it and makes it to accept and digest the food. It also strengthens the intestines and regulates their work; it gives new vigor to the nervous system. Use it in all cases combined with loss of appetite and loss of strength. Let all members of the family use it. Whenever you wish to keep up your health and strength, use it.

At all Drug Stores. Insist on TRINER'S. Medical advice given gratis, by mail.
