AN APPRECIATION.

A book like this is the product, not of one, but many, hands. It is impossible for the Board of Editors to thank individually all those who have contributed to its success, but they take this opportunity to thank the advertisers, and the subscribers for their generous support, and the innumerable individuals who have contributed varying amounts of important material to the subject matter of the volume.

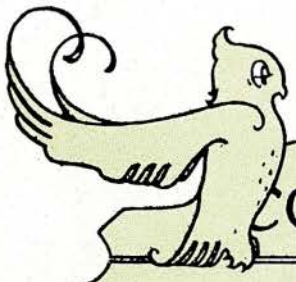

Special mention should be given, however, to the following individuals and firms for especially valuable and important aids in the course of publication:

Art Work	Einar Lundquist
Individual Portraits	Haynes Studio
Group Photographs and Engraving	Rockford Illustrating Company
Typography	Reilly & Reilly
Covers	David J. Malloy Company
Binding	Brock & Rankin
Printing	Bliss Printing Company

THE RECORD OF 1923.

The class of '23 is a class of noble youth,
Our colors are the symbols of honor and of truth;
For four long years we've struggled, our colors to advance,
In work, in play, in lessons we've grappled every chance.

Although we've had much trouble and have ofttimes been cast down,
Discouragement's no reason for us to sit and frown;
So we've been up and doing with a willing heart and hand,
And now as we leave high school we take a loyal stand.

The faculty has stood by us in trouble and in need,
Our principal's kind advice has been a help indeed;
Our athletes have won us fame at home and afar,
And the many organizations we do not wish to debar.

In school we have learned to co-operate and help a friend in need.
We have also learned that kindly acts are splendid things indeed.
We have formed many ties of friendship that are better than much gold;
And may each one become dearer as the years unfold.

Dear Rockford High we thank you for the training you have given
To shape us, plastic lumps of clay, into young men and women;
As we approach the portals of another world that's new,
Our loving friend, old R. H. S., we bid you kind adieu.

—Stuart McNair, '23.

ROCKFORD HIGH SCHOOL BAND

At the completion of its sixteenth year, the band, under the direction of Mr. J. T. Haight, has finished one of the most successful terms of its existence. This year, as in years preceding, the band reorganized with many vacancies to fill, but with the combined efforts of the members and the leader, the players were welded together into a fine working combination.

The band, at the football games, received much needed practice, and also helped develop a school spirit to a marked degree. Through the generosity of Rockford Merchants, the band accompanied our team to East Aurora and later in the season they made a trip to DeKalb. At all home basketball games, the organization served in its usual manner. The Band represented the school on many memorial occasions and played at several Cadet Battalion reviews. The Band also put in two days in April at Stagg's National Basket Ball Tournament cheering on the Rabs in their great fight for the title, thanks again to the generosity of Rockford merchants and manufacturers.

One of the noticeable improvements of our band this year is a new drum major's outfit of black, which makes splendid contrast with the other uniforms when the band is on parade.

Two concerts, one in January and one in May, were presented which were well attended and successful in all respects. An outside concert was given accompanying a boy's choir of the city.

As commencement is coming, graduating members are leaving many places which will undoubtedly be filled by reserve members in their turn and we hope for "a better band each year" as such was the motto during the past year.

R. H. S. BAND—BATTALION FORMATION.

ORCHESTRA

Who would think that our orchestra could become such an important factor in our school and community life in just four short years? Its success is due largely to the untiring efforts of our co-worker and director, Mr. Bornor. In 1918 he began with only twelve members, nearly all of whom were violin players, and has brought the membership up to fifty players with a wide variety of instruments.

The orchestra has played at various school and city functions during the past year and has done much to satisfy the need for such an organization.

To think that to belong to the orchestra means all work and no play is very wrong. Aside from the long hours of practice two evenings a week, the orchestra had its annual banquet and dance in March, a novel affair being put on in cabaret style. It also gave a dance for the whole school, not only for fun, but to raise money for a set of Tympani. The H. S. O. furnished the music for the dancing and, judging from the noise and the crowd, everyone had a good time.

The concert, which is an annual event, was a great success, and showed the remarkable ability of the organization in rendering such compositions as the Hungarian Rhapsodie, rarely attempted by a high school orchestra.

The orchestra is now making plans for the annual boat ride and dance which will be given some time in June, to which all are looking forward as a relief from the probable warm weather.

THE GIRLS' GLEE CLUB

The Girls' Glee Club, organized in 1906 by Mrs. Pierce, is one of the largest and most enthusiastic of the girl organizations of the High School. The members number over fifty and each one has a very high sense of what it means to be a Glee Club Girl. Among other parties which they have sponsored this year was a very charming tea, given in one of the rooms of the Domestic Science Department, to which the girls' mothers were invited, giving an excellent opportunity for the mothers and instructor to meet.

The Girls' Glee Club boasts of such a wealth of talent, that it was only with the greatest difficulty that a choice could be made between the applicants for the principal parts in "The Drum Major."

THE BOYS' GLEE CLUB

The Boys' Glee Club, organized in 1921 by Miss Marjorie Ely, is a flourishing institution. Small in numbers, but large in volume, they can make the old Aud ring with their spirited song.

The two Glee Clubs gave a party in January in the Gym and cleared about twenty dollars to be used for buying a velvet drop curtain for the stage of the Aud..

"The Drum Major," a very catchy and melodious operetta, is occupying the time and interest of the Club at present and bids fair to be the musical event of the season.

CHORUS

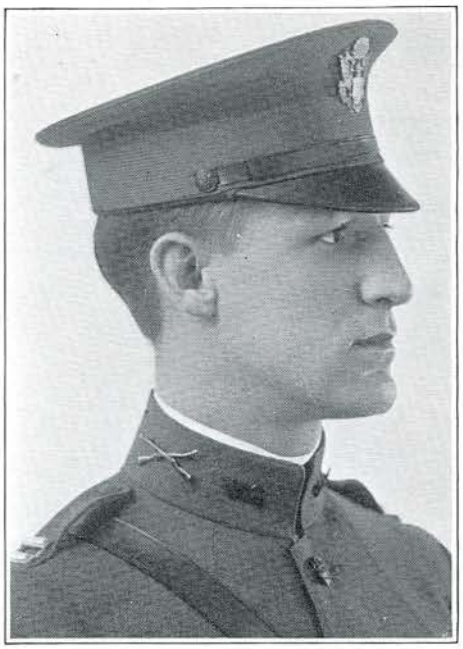

The two Choruses consist of twenty-seven members—boys and girls together. Each chorus meets twice a week and has done splendid work this year.

The purpose of the Chorus is, first, to give everyone in the High School who wants to sing a chance to do so in the right way, and, second, to form a nucleus for the Glee Clubs.

The Choruses should be much larger, for everybody ought to want to sing and want to sing well. Then the work of the community sing-leaders will not always be so distasteful and difficult. Come and join us, there's a combination of work and play.

THE R. O. T. C. RECORD OF 1923.

The Military Department has done as much as any other organization in the school this year to put Rockford on the map. Rockford was rated as one of the ten best units in the country and was one of three to be picked for the second time. The band is a great aid and has probably been one of the big factors in our getting honor school. To Captain Fisher goes a great deal of credit for the showing that the corps made at their various inspections. With his leadership again this year we expect to estabish a record of being declared honor school three years in succession.

In order to make a good appearance in the parades it was necessary that the corps have a standard of colors so the Chamber of Commerce very kindly appropriated one hundred and twenty-five dollars to buy a school flag for us. A contest was held to see which student would submit the best design for the flag. That submitted by Color Sergeant Leslie Lofdahl, a member of last year's graduating class, was judged the best. Elaborate plans were laid for the presentation ceremony. The Chamber of Commerce who had charge of the ceremony, invited General Bell and his staff, and Major Andrews and his staff. The presentation which was to have taken place at Fairgrounds Park was held in the gymnasium because of bad weather. The flag was presented by W. D. Knight, commander of the Craig Post of the American Legion and accepted by Clarence Read, cadet major.

The beautiful sabres which the cadet officers now have were given to the corps by sixteen business men of Rockford. These were formally presented at Fairgrounds October 31st, by those business men who had so willingly donated them. The battalion was inspected after the presentation by the business men and Colonel Stillman, the inspecting officer of the Sixth corps area.

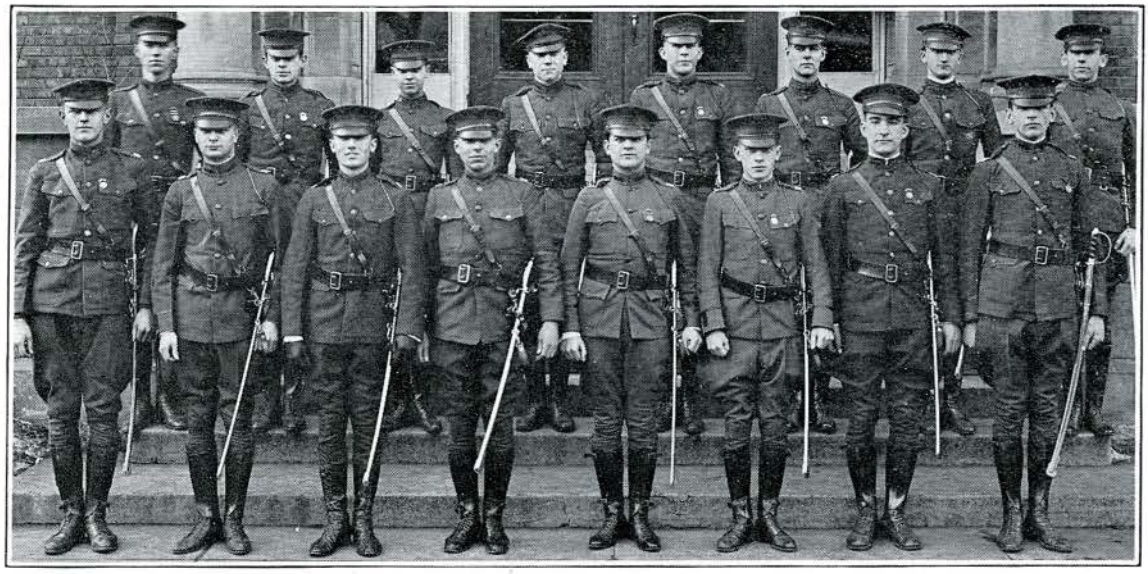

Sergeant Blake retired to civilian life last June after thirty years of service. The corps presented him with a silver tea service in recognition of the work which he had done with the unit. This vacancy was filled by the transfer of Sergeant Lowry, from Calumet, Mich., to Rockford. Sergeant Lowry immediately won the friendship of all the members of the corps.

Three former cadets now represent the corps at Annapolis, they are Robert Armstrong, George Defek, and Alfred Pefley. This year four cadets received appointments to West Point and one to Annapolis. Those receiving appointments were Robert Brolin, principal; Leslie Wright, principal; Lawrence Kuter, first alternate, and Angelo Gambino, first alternate, all for West Point. If they pass their examinations they will enter their respective schools in July, 1923.

The Military Hop, as usual, was far ahead of all other parties. The decorations, in charge of Cadet Major Seal, assisted by Cadet 1st Lieut. Stewart Walker, were the best ever. A large number attended and it was declared a howling success by everyone.

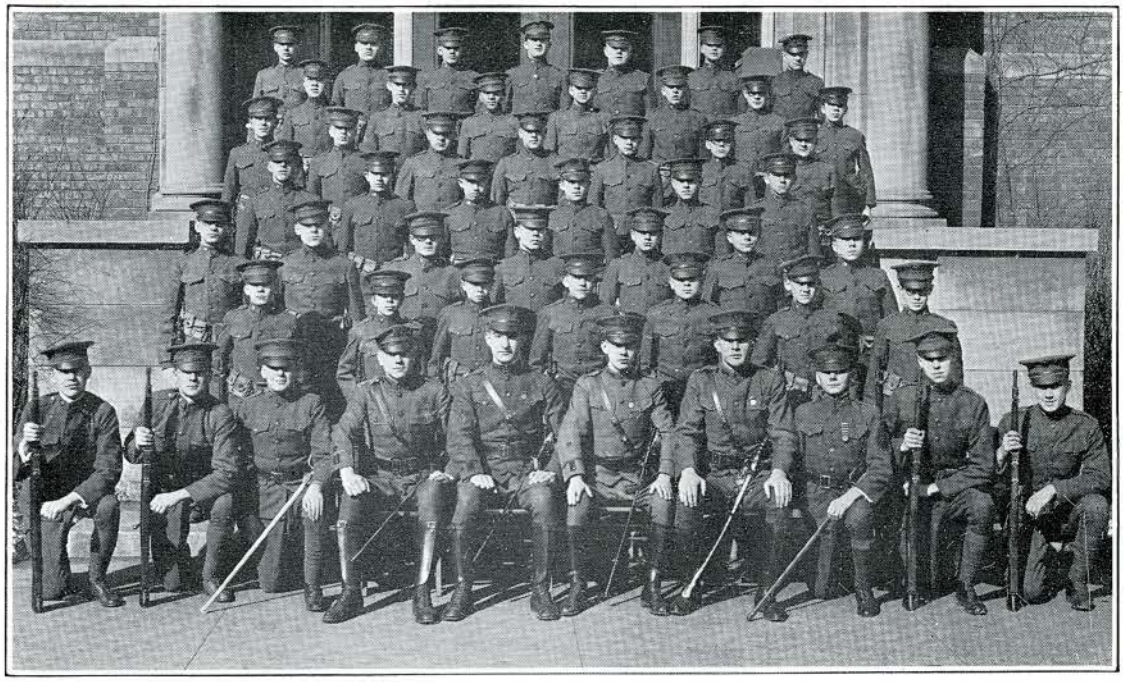

Captain Fisher leaves the corp this June, and everyone regrets it very much. All the honors attained have been gained since his coming.

SOCIETIES

LES ADMIRATRICES DES BELLES LETTRES

The third year of the A. B. L. literary club will be remembered as a very successful and eventful one. Although membership is limited to Senior and Junior girls who have been recommended by their English teachers, the roll this year contained one hundred and one names. The purpose of this large group is, as stated in the constitution "to further the appreciation of literary work and public speaking, to advance our standard of intellectual and social culture, and to promote a feeling of good fellowship among the girls."

The two things which stand out above all other accomplishments this year are the A. B. L. party and the A. B. L. assembly. It was the first time this organization had ever undertaken either of these, but they proved very successful.

Too much credit for this year's success can not be given to the very competent officers and to Miss Owen, faculty critic. The willingness to co-operate on the part of the entire club, also, is largely responsible for its achievements. As the year closes, the last of the charter members will be lost, but will leave a standard behind them which will be an inspiration for future club members.

PHILOMATHEAN LITERARY SOCIETY

Once more the Philos came into their own. A year back there were less than ten members and now there are more than thirty. The members and officers are chosen carefully, those fellows being selected who are responsible, upright, enthusiastic, and serious in their work, fellows who are worthy of the honor of being in the Philos. Many of the members occupy responsible positions in other organizations.

There was a good deal of trouble in picking a meeting-day which would not interfere with other school organizations, but at last an afternoon was selected which suited everyone.

On March 7, the Philos gave an afternoon party in the Boys' Gymnasium and it was one of the most successful parties of the year.

Under the leadership of Mr. Endriz, the Philos have sprung into the position they occupied before the night meetings were taken from them last year.

At the beginning of every semester there is a membership drive and new members are taken in to take the place of the graduating members. It is the desire of the Philos to have Freshmen and Sophomores as well as Juniors and Seniors in their society.

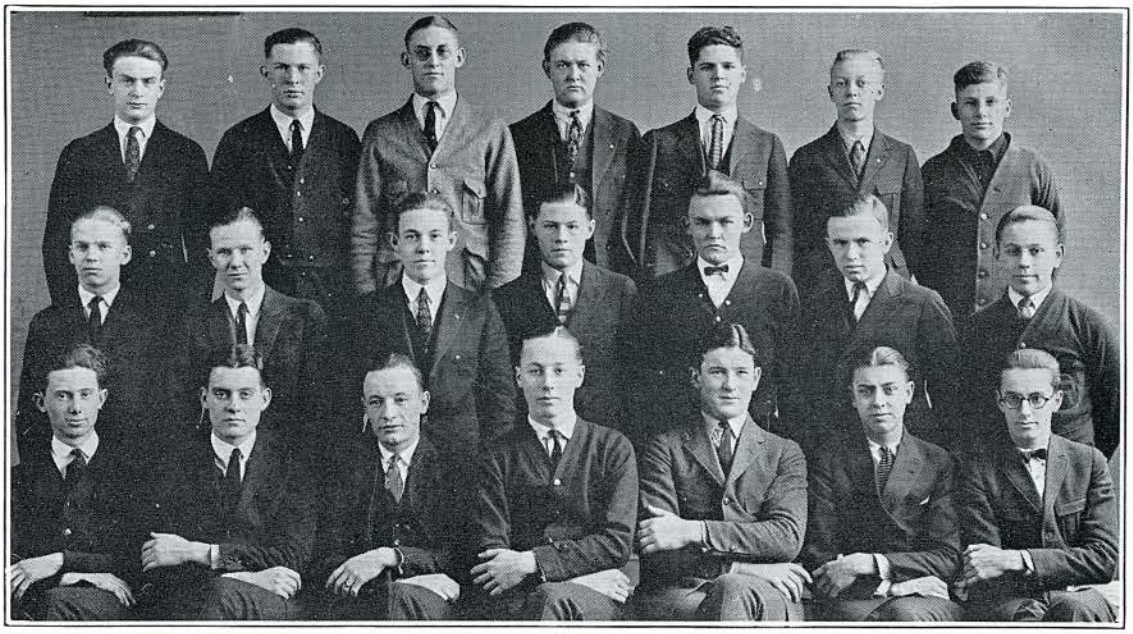

Although the society will be handicapped in June by the graduation of many of its present active members, the outlook for the future is very promising. The society will undoubtedly accomplish bigger things than ever before to honor the name of Philo.

DRAMA CLUB

Last year a Drama Club was organized in Rockford High School, and was improved upon, by this year's club which is under the supervision of Miss Ina Perego, until it has now been made unsurpassable.

Early in the year of 1922-23 a most unique initiation was held at which more than two hundred boys and girls were made members. All through the year such clever and entertaining programs have been staged, often times an educational lecture or demonstration, but usually a play or scene, that their success is not unknown.

At times outsiders interested in the same line of work have come in to offer programs and at other times pupils from the classes in the art of Drama have offered programs. Several matinees have been given and also a play for an assembly. In the social line, a studio tea was given for the mothers and an exhibition showing the work being done in the Speech and Dramatic Art classes.

THE LIBRARY BOARD

The Library Board, a group of people who are responsible for the proper shelving of books each hour and the distribution of admits under the direction of Miss Lathrop, deserve much credit for the capable way in which the work has been handled.

One girl was selected to act on the board every hour. These were principally girls who were interested in books and general library work. During this past year a new system of giving two tenths credits per semester for such work was adopted.

With the library board as a nucleus, there grew up the Library Club or Lambda Kappa, as it was named. This club which meets every Thursday to enjoy carefully prepared programs, is composed of thirty active members, who are interested in books and book reading.

The club sponsored a "Book Week" January 9-13, with the aim of promoting good reading. Several book reviews and essays were published in a special book number of the "Owl." In the halls and corridors were placed attractive posters and slogans illustrating the idea of "Book Week."

A special assembly was given in connection with this week, in which scenes from various well-known books were depicted. A prize was offered for the best slogan on books or reading, the winning slogan being "Read a good book and add a key to your ring of knowledge."

With a hope of promoting better reading and an increased interest in the best of literature this organization has tried under its officers to serve the students of Rockford High School.

THE AMAZONS

The second year of the Amazons opened with an enrollment of seventy-five girls. Miss Currier, physical director, and Miss Ruth Wilson, her assistant, were appointed faculty advisors.

The plan of the organization is to give every girl a certain number of points for participating in hockey, swimming, baseball, tennis, hiking, and various other sports. Nor is all the time devoted to athletics. Picnics, wienie roasts, and a "Mock Prom" were additional pleasures. One big feature of the year was the Annual Party given in the form of a "Mock Prom." Every girl was present with her stiff dress suit and her best girl. That the party was popular was proved by the large crowd and the congratulations afterward.

Other features of the club for the year were the selling of candy at the district basket ball tournament, and the rally given by the club for the Elgin-Rockford football game, which was a great success.

The girls in charge of the various sports for the year are: Verna Swanborg, Hygiene; Margaret Sjoblom, Hockey; Florence Adolph, Hiking; Mable Merritt, Swimming.

AGRICULTURE CLUB

In the fall, the Agriculture Club was greeted by more than thirty Freshmen knocking for admission. This was a greater number than any previous year.

During the first semester, the club centered much of its activity about the stock judging teams. Good fortune had honored us with two state champion judging teams, the result of the contest at the University of Illinois in July. The club raised the funds to send the teams to the two big national contests, the Dairy Judging Team going to St. Paul, Minnesota, to the National Dairy Show, and the Fat Stock Judging Team to the International at Chicago. In both contests the boys represented the state of Illinois and Rockford High School in a most creditable way. The boys on these teams were awarded Rs.

At Hallowe'en time the first school party of the year was again sponsored by the Agriculture Club.

Rural plays prepared in co-operation with the Speech Department were given at rural centers about Rockford. The Agriculture Club quartette deserves much credit in this connection. Plans are laid for the annual banquet to be held late in the second semester.

The programs of the year consisted of features both educational and entertaining. The usual half day holiday was taken to visit the Senator Medill McCormick farm at Byron.

BIOLOGY CLUB

The success of the Biology Club during the past year has been very outstanding. It started out with an exceptionally large membership which was nearly doubled at the beginning of the second semester. In the fall the main diversion was field trips which were attended by large numbers in search of biological specimens, as well as a good time.

After the fall initiation the usual weiner roast took place accompanied by much joviality. Much interest has been shown at the indoor meetings, the programs for which are planned and given by groups of members of the club. For example, a few of the programs have been, a talk on California vegetation, a discussion of the trees of Rockford and the lives of some great biologists.

The club also successfully sponsored its first school party, February 23, and is looking forward to field trips to woods and gardens and especially to its annual picnic.

WIRELESS CLUB

Long before the present widespread interest in radio, Rockford High School had an organization for the study of the principles of wireless communication. This object is embodied in the Wireless Club at present. Practical demonstration of radio apparatus is given the members by means of standard instruments belonging to the Club.

Pieces added to the set during the last year include a detector and two stage amplifiers, which were constructed by members of the club, and a Magnavox with the necessary batteries.

The meetings, Monday afternoons are given over to a discussion of the theory and practice of wireless telegraphy and telephony. The Friday evening meeting is given over to "listening in" on concerts and lectures from all over the country. Broadcasting stations are heard from both coasts and Canada.

"LES BONS AMIS"

In October of 1922, the students of the French Classes re-organized "Les Bons Amis."

The purpose of "Les Bons Amis" has always been the promotion of the use, knowledge, and popularity of the French language. All those who are now or who have taken French are eligible to membership in this Club.

During both semesters of this school year, "Les Bons Amis" has met on alternate Monday nights after school. The business of the meetings is carried on in French, and, so far as it is possible, the programs are also in French.

At Christmas time the Club sponsored a party in the Aud for the Club members. A Christmas tree, refreshments, and a program were the main features of the party.

In March 1923, "Les Bons Amis" took charge of three assemblies, presenting "Scene d'un Restaurant Francais" which portrayed a scene in a French cafe at the time of the war.

In the middle of the second semester "Les Bons Amis" had an afternoon tea for the club members, and at the close of school an outdoor picnic lunch was also held for the members.

EL CIRCULO ESPANOL

El Circulo Espanol (The Spanish Circle), a new organization was formed early in September by members and ex-members of the Spanish classes, with Miss Prestley, Miss Gummersheimer, and Miss Willard as faculty advisors.

A committee was appointed by the advisors to draw up a constitution, which set forth the purpose of the club, namely, to promote the growth of friendship, the interest in Spanish speaking countries and in the use of the Spanish language.

This new society immediately entered the "Social Whirl" of the school, and although the organization was not yet sufficiently accustomed to society to attempt an evening party, a very delightful afternoon party was held for members only. The club also gave an interesting playlet, "The Hat Shop," written by the cast and presented in the auditorium.

The Circle gained a great deal of popularity this year and it is hoped that with this momentum of popularity El Circulo Espanol will carry on its purpose in school life through all the years to come.

THE LATIN CLUB

During the past year another member has been added to the number of organizations in the school. The name, everyone admits, is the only disagreeable feature of the club and even this has been powerless to hinder its growth.

The Latin Club was organized December 19, 1922. Every effort was put forth to arouse interest in the "dead language." At the first meeting more than fifty pupils enrolled for membership and officers were elected. Any pupil taking Latin was eligible. Meetings were held every other week and very interesting programs were presented, which contained merely a suggestion of "Caesar in Gaul" and "Cicero's Orations." The popularity of these programs is shown by the steadily increasing membership.

The purpose of the Club is to stimulate the interest in this language.

Latin should be one of the leading subjects of the school and it is hoped that, through the influence of the Latin Club, the advantages of this study will become more generally recognized.

THE 8-5-3 CLUB.

The 8-5-3 Club was organized in the beginning of the second semester by the social science department. The first meeting was held in room 103 but owing to the large number of members the club room was changed to room 10. The name 8-5-3 is original and clever in its meaning. The eighth letter of the alphabet stands for History, E, the fifth letter of the alphabet stands for Economics, and C, the third letter of the alphabet stands for Civics.

The purpose of the 8-5-3 Club is, quoting from the Constitution, "to promote and further interest in the subjects of the Social Science Department, namely, History, Economics, and Civics."

At the third meeting of the Club there were over one hundred members enrolled. This shows that some day the 8-5-3 Club will be one of the major organizations of Rockford High School.

As this organization was formed so late in the school year a school party was out of the question, but in order to show our school spirit we had a club picnic near the end of the semester.

The officers elected are as follows:

Elizabeth Reupke ..... President
Edwin Carter ..... Vice President
Ruth McCathran ..... Secretary
Rupert Cleveland ..... Treasurer
Lola Coppins ..... Publicity Chairman
Miss Lois Vanderhoff ..... Faculty Critic

THE HI-Y CLUB.

What is the Hi-Y? It is an organization composed of the class of fellows in school that stand for better things and higher ideas. It is not an organization of sissies but a group of red-blooded fellows who know what is right and have the back-bone to stand up and fight for the right.

The Older Boys' Conference which was held last March, on the 9th and 10th, was a huge success. Many boys profited by it. This was sponsored by the Hi-Y Club.

The most crying need in the city of Rockford today is that for a Y. M. C. A. It is through this organization that some day a real movement for a "Y" will be started.

There are many things that the Hi-Y is going to promote that will be of benefit to the school. They need the support of every student and with you doing your best, R. H. S. will be a place that everyone will be proud of.

THE STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council is probably the most representative of the school organizations. Its members are chosen by the Study Hall advisers, assisted by a class committee.

The main purpose of the Student Council is to regulate and govern the social affairs of the school life.

Under the supervision of Miss Putnam and Mr. Hanna, the work of the Council was resumed early in the second semester to take up the matter of election of Student Mayors and Committeemen for the assemblies.

During the year, many plans were formulated which will tend, as a whole to uplift the standards of the school.

WOMEN'S LIFE SAVING CORPS

Members of this corps passed the prescribed life saving tests for men and women, receiving their charter from the American Red Cross, July 25, 1922.

Objects of the Corps

1. To develop sentiment and facilities for safeguarding human life from drowning.
2. To teach precautions that should be observed on water, and preventive measures necessary to avoid accidents.
3. To prevent drowning by—
   a. Teaching swimming and boat-handling.
   b. Holding swimming and Life-Saving exhibitions.
   c. Promoting swimming and Life-Saving competitions.
   d. Giving instruction in the various methods of performing artificial respiration.
4. To rescue those in peril of drowning.
5. To resuscitate persons apparently drowned.
6. To teach its members First Aid to the Injured and to instruct others, or non-members, in this work.

STATE CHAMPION DAIRY CATTLE JUDGING TEAM.

Last summer Rockford High School competed for the second time in the State Dairy Cattle Judging Contest held at Champaign. Two years ago we won second place. This year we went one better. Twenty-nine high schools competed. Stuart Cummings won the honor of being the highest scoring individual in the contest. The team won the orange and blue Illinois banner, and the members won ribbons for individual achievements.

Being the state champions, the team was given the trip to St. Paul, Minnesota, where they represented Illinois in a national contest staged at the National Dairy Show. There they competed with teams from other states. Kenneth Greenlee won the coveted medals for judging both Guernsey and Ayrshire cattle. The fund to send the team to St. Paul was raised by Rockford business men.

The team stood fourteenth among the other states. Maryland received the honor of having the winning team.

STATE CHAMPION FAT STOCK JUDGING TEAM.

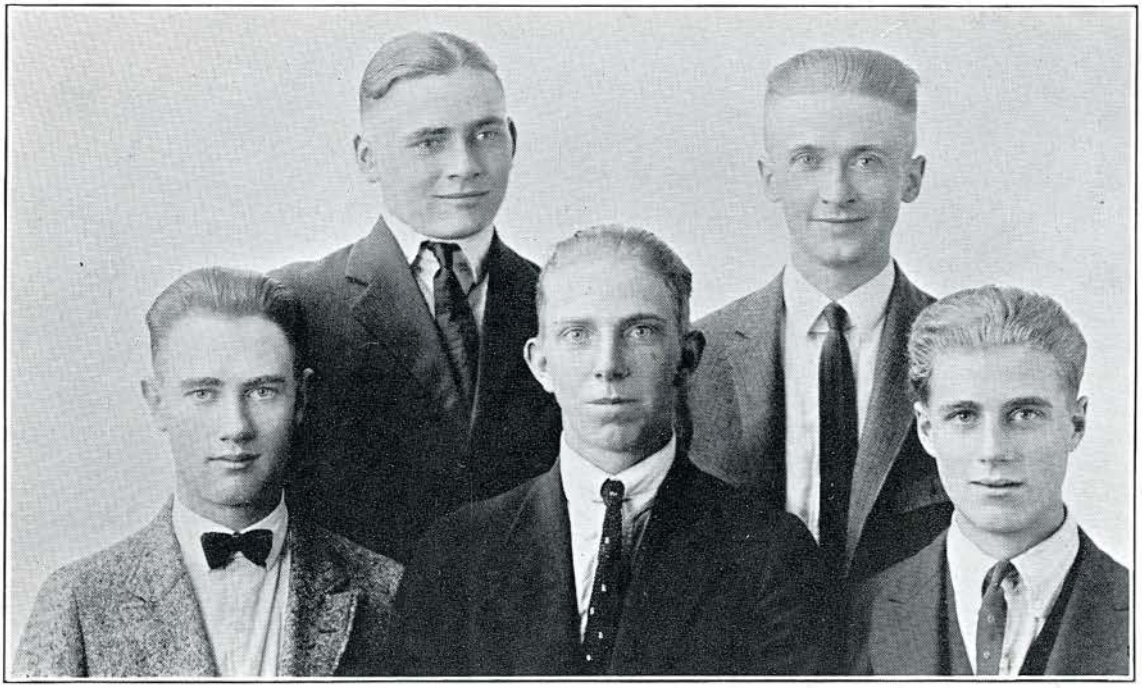

Thirty-five judging teams representing as many different high schools in Illinois assembled at the State University in July to compete in the judging of fat stock. A number of the down state schools having won the competitive trophy previous years were back to win it for keeps. The competition was strong.

While it was our first appearance in this state contest, we succeeded in capturing the championship, the bronze seal of The University of Illinois and the orange and blue banner. As a reward for highest individual honors, George Reed won the mammoth gold and silver trophy cup. All of the team members won ribbons for their high individual standing. The Illinois Agriculture Association gave the team one hundred dollars in recognition of its high achievements.

In December the state champions competed for national honors at the Livestock Show in Chicago. Teams were there from all over the United States. While our team did not carry off all of the laurels, it did make a most creditable showing, an honor to Illinois and to Rockford. George Ralston was rated the second highest judge of horses, losing only by a few points to a California boy. The winning team was from Virginia.

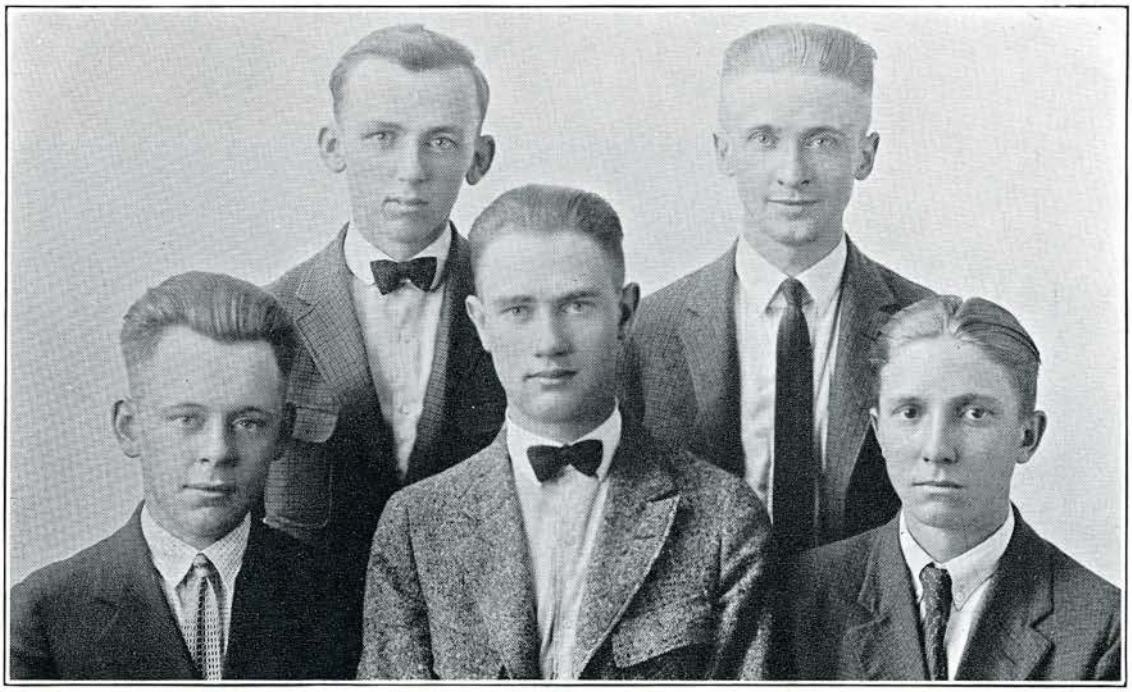

In recognition of its good work, the team was invited to compete with five selected teams from United States and Canada at The Western Livestock Show held at Denver in January. Owing to a lack of funds the team did not make the trip.

STUDENT MAYORS AND COMMITTEEMEN

A new plan inaugurated in the high school this year which has worked very well, has proved a source of satisfaction to student body and faculty alike.

At the beginning of the school year last fall, it was proposed by Mr. Marberry that instead of his presiding at assembly throughout the year, that the members of each assembly group elect one of their own number to preside for one semester as student mayor. Each group also elected another person to represent the group on a committee to plan for programs throughout the entire year. These mayors and committeemen met with a faculty committee composed of Mr. Chandler, Mr. McCleneghan, Miss Perrego, and Miss Currier, and the entire group worked on the problem of good assemblies.

That they were manifestly successful is evidenced by the enthusiasm with which the programs were received. A wide variety of numbers was provided during the year to take care of the catholic tastes of such a large group as our student body. No definite statement has been made, but we hope the plan will be continued next year and thereafter.

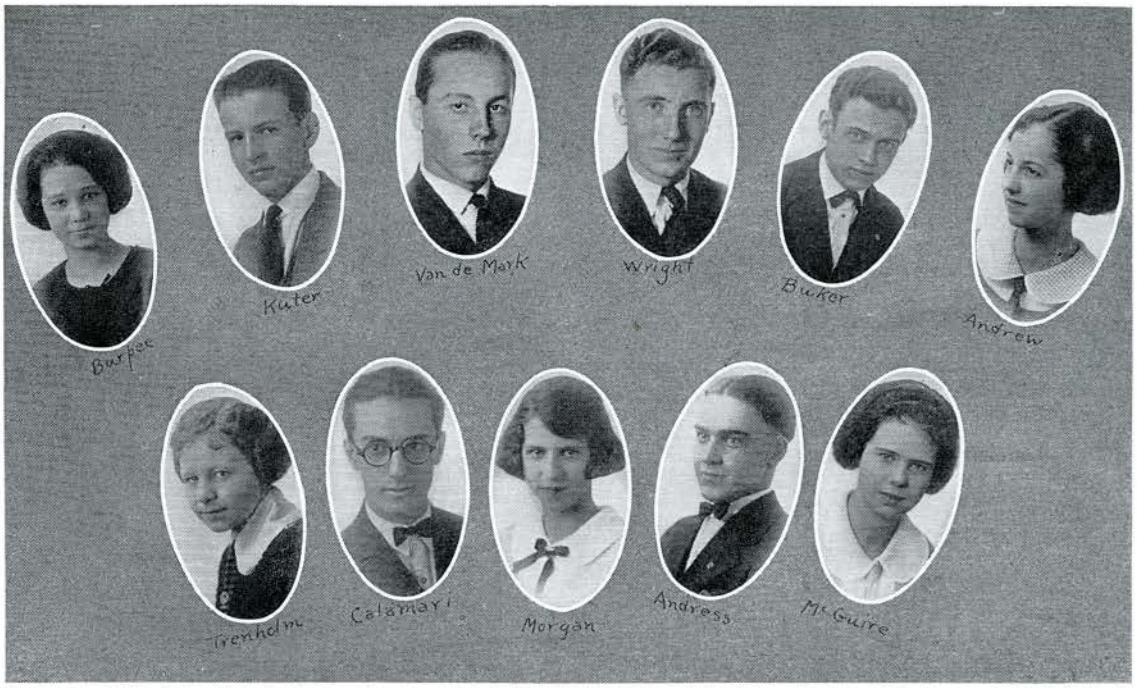

THE DEBATE TEAM.

Last year, for the first time in a number of years, Rockford High School produced a debate team. This year the good work was continued. The teams this year are ones that we have every reason to be proud of. The first meet was held in Freeport and Rockford, March 23, 1923, on the question "Resolved, That the Colleges of the middle west should limit their social and athletic activities." Both the affirmative and negative teams were unfortunate enough to lose, but when one considers that it is really the second year of work for this organization, there is no reason to be ashamed of our record.

THE STENOGRAPHY AND TYPEWRITING TEAMS OF 1922.

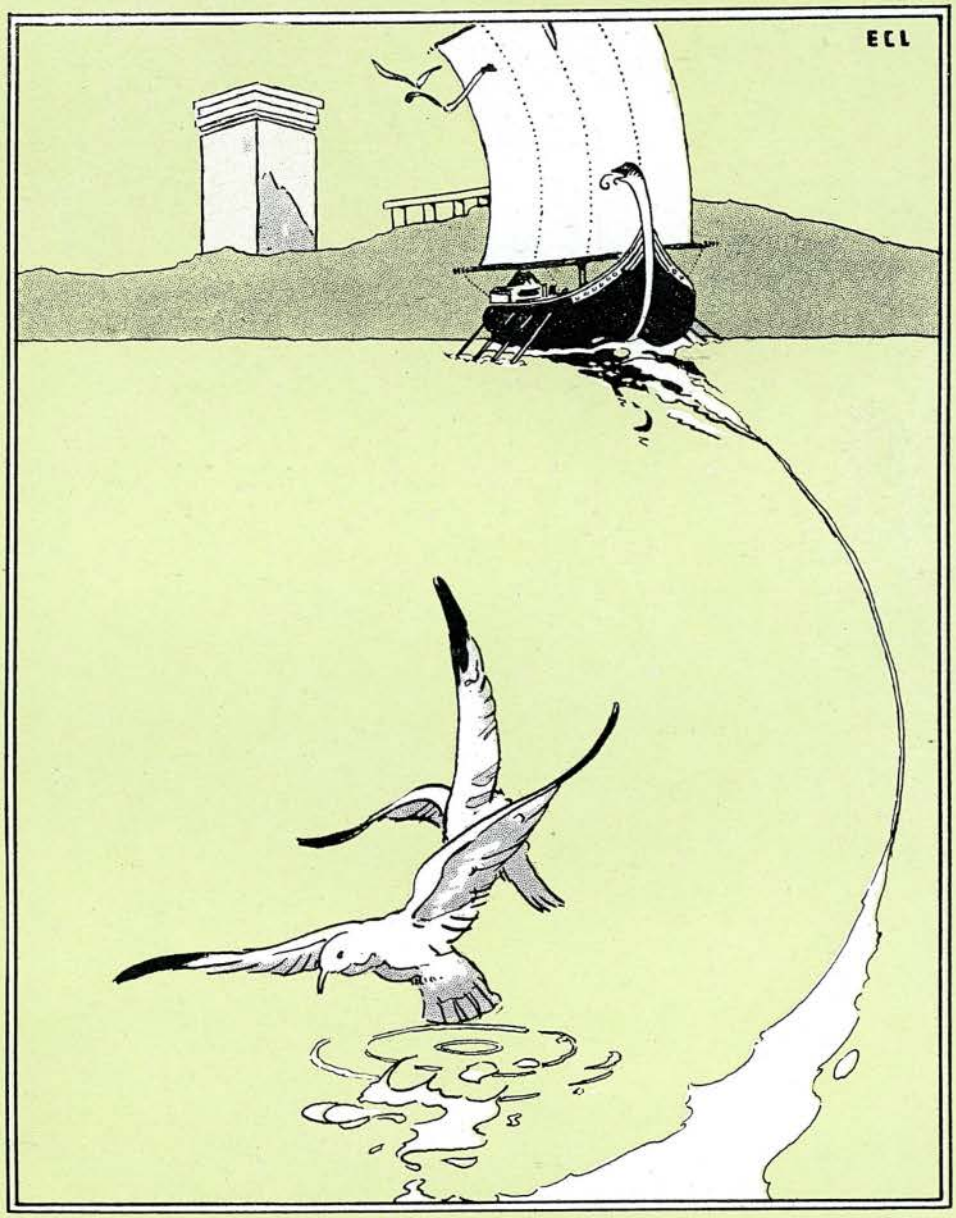

The annual contest among schools of the Big Seven in stenography and typewriting was held last May at Elgin. Rockford won second honors at the meet with a total of twenty-one points. Elgin took first place with a total of thirty-five and one-half points. DeKalb finished third, East Aurora taking fourth place.

Elgin won four first places, the typewriting team contest, the individual typing contest, stenography team contest, and the individual stenography contest at one hundred words per minute.

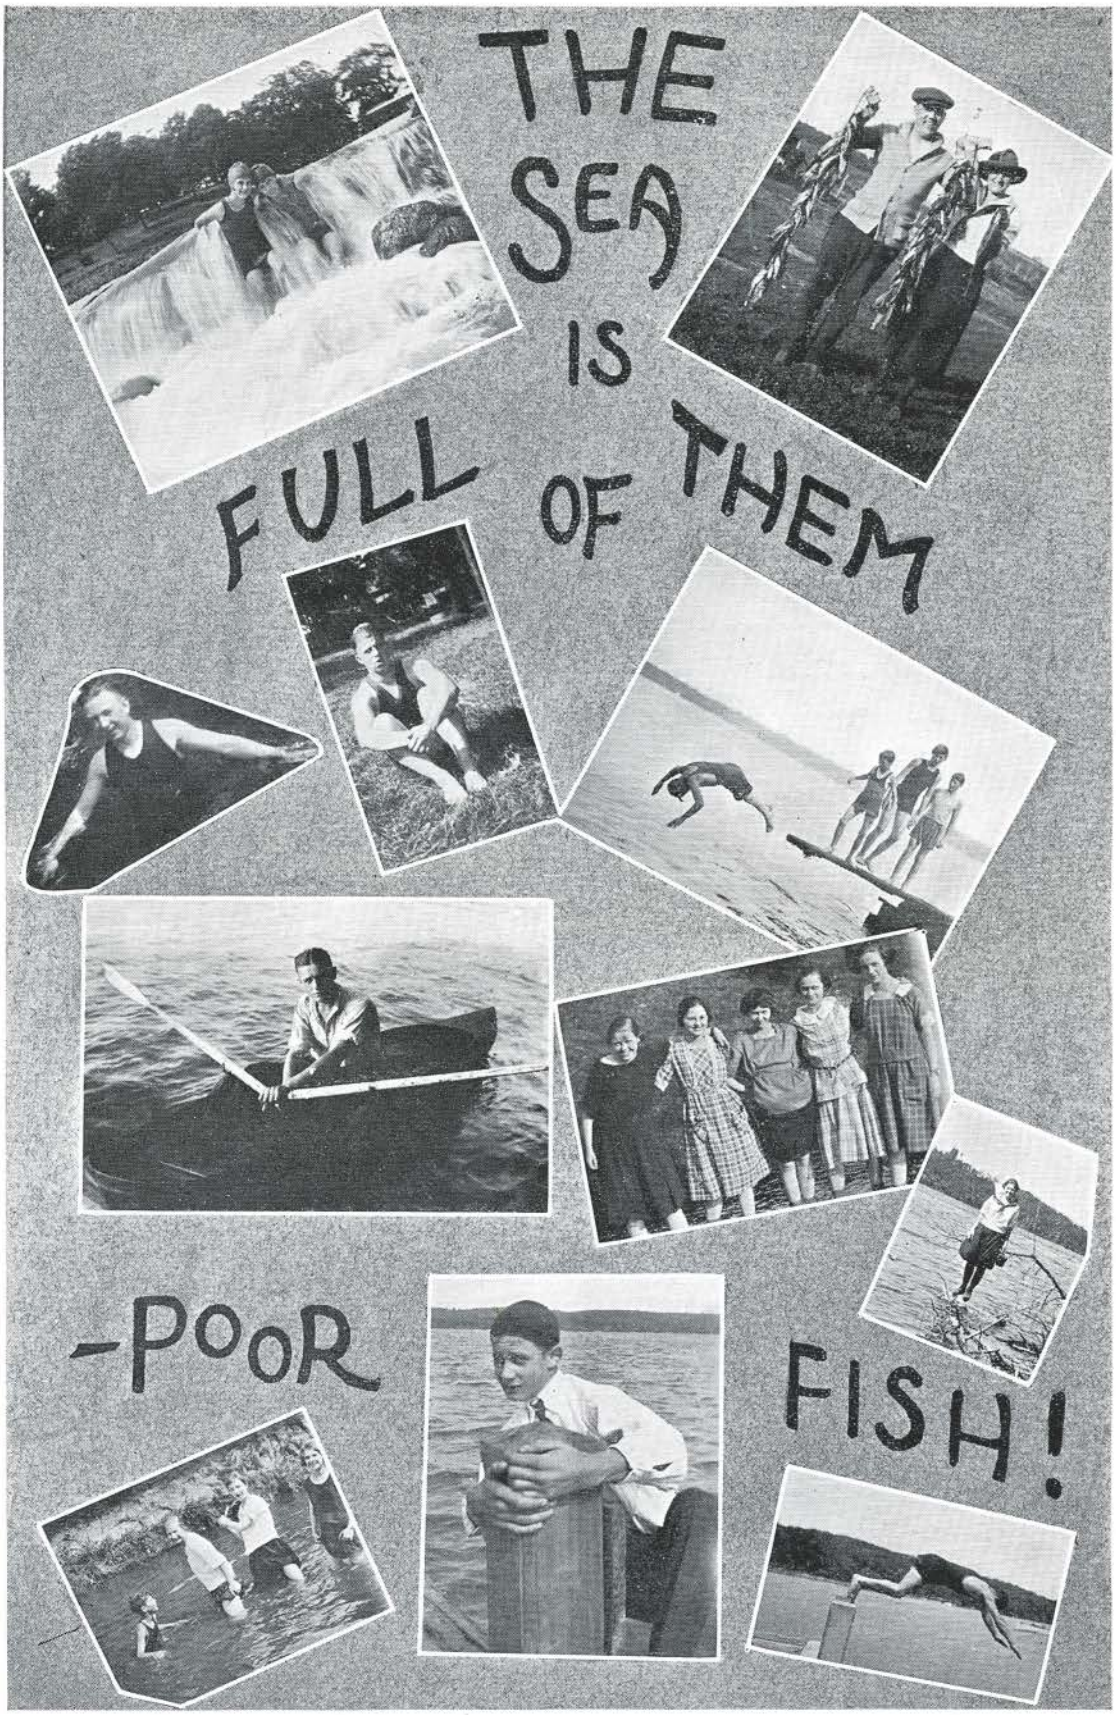

Rockford won first place in the individual stenography contest at eight words per minute, and took second place in the typewriting team contest, the stenography team contest, and the individual stenography contest at one word per minute.

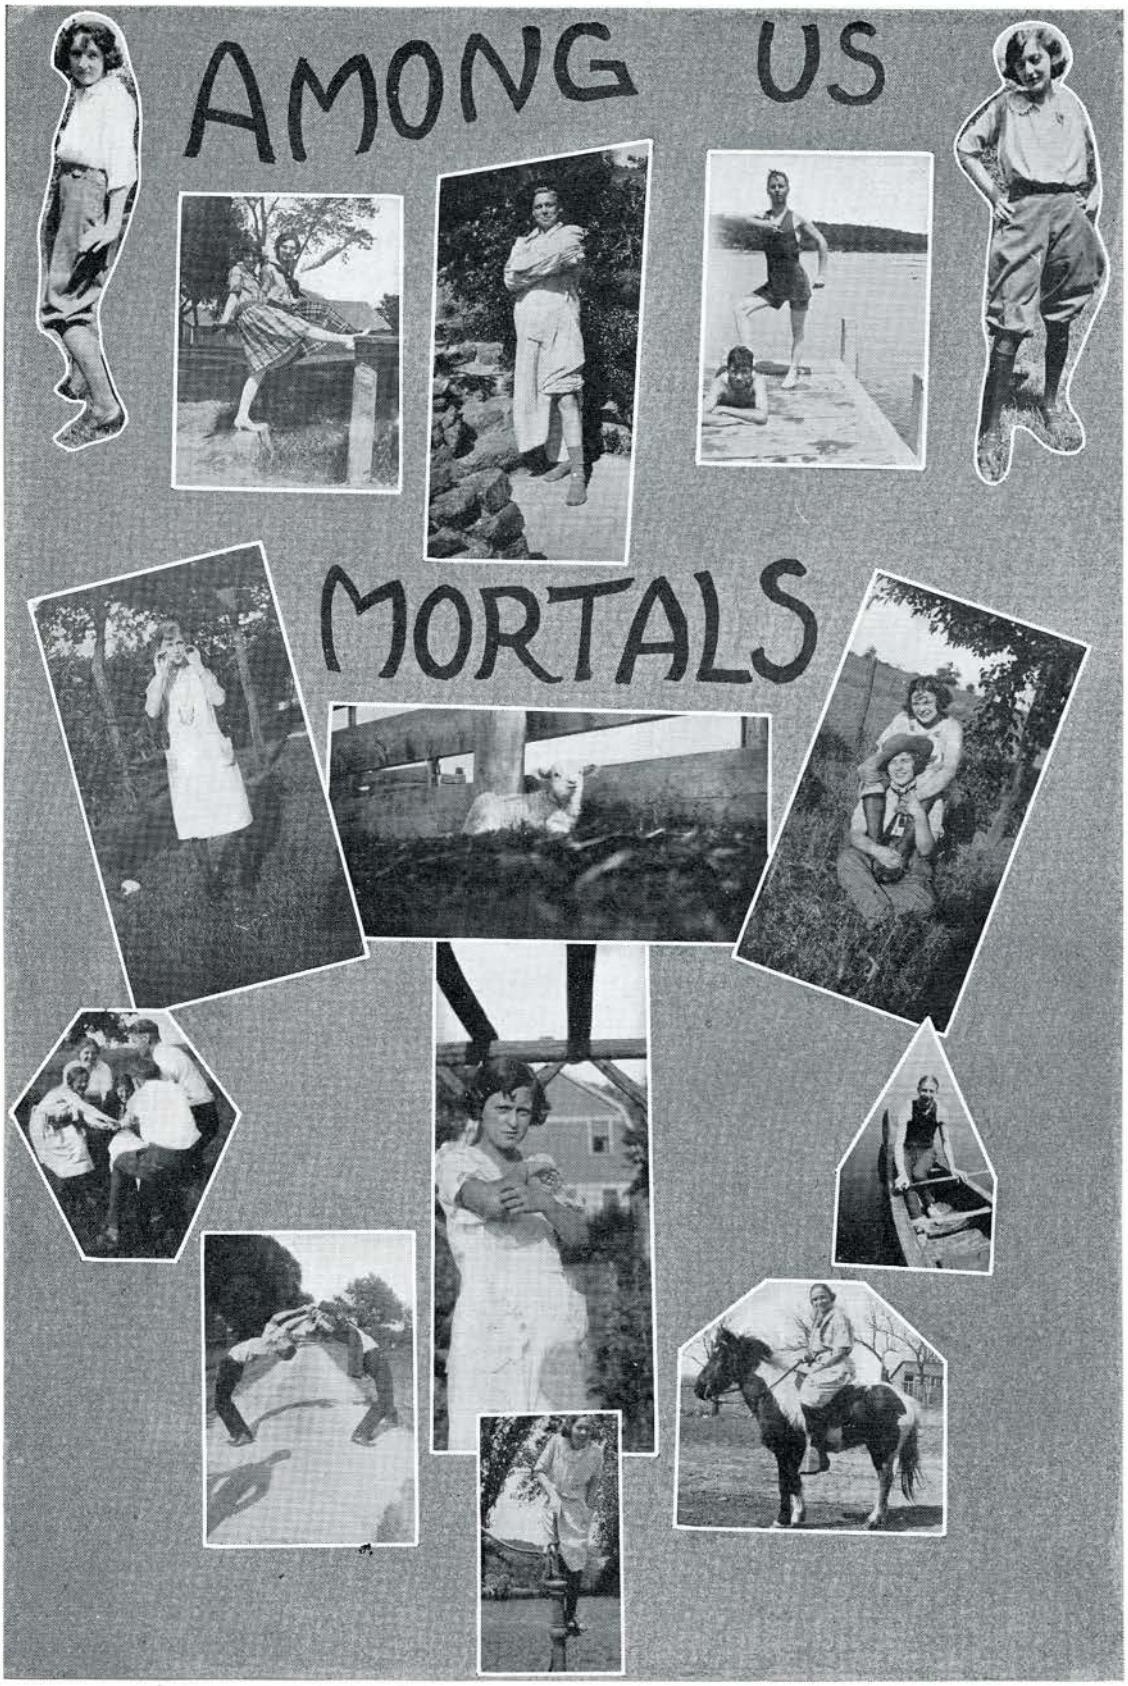

The members of the typewriting team were Gladys Ekeberg, Marie Perry, Mildred Johnson, and Hazel Hoagland.

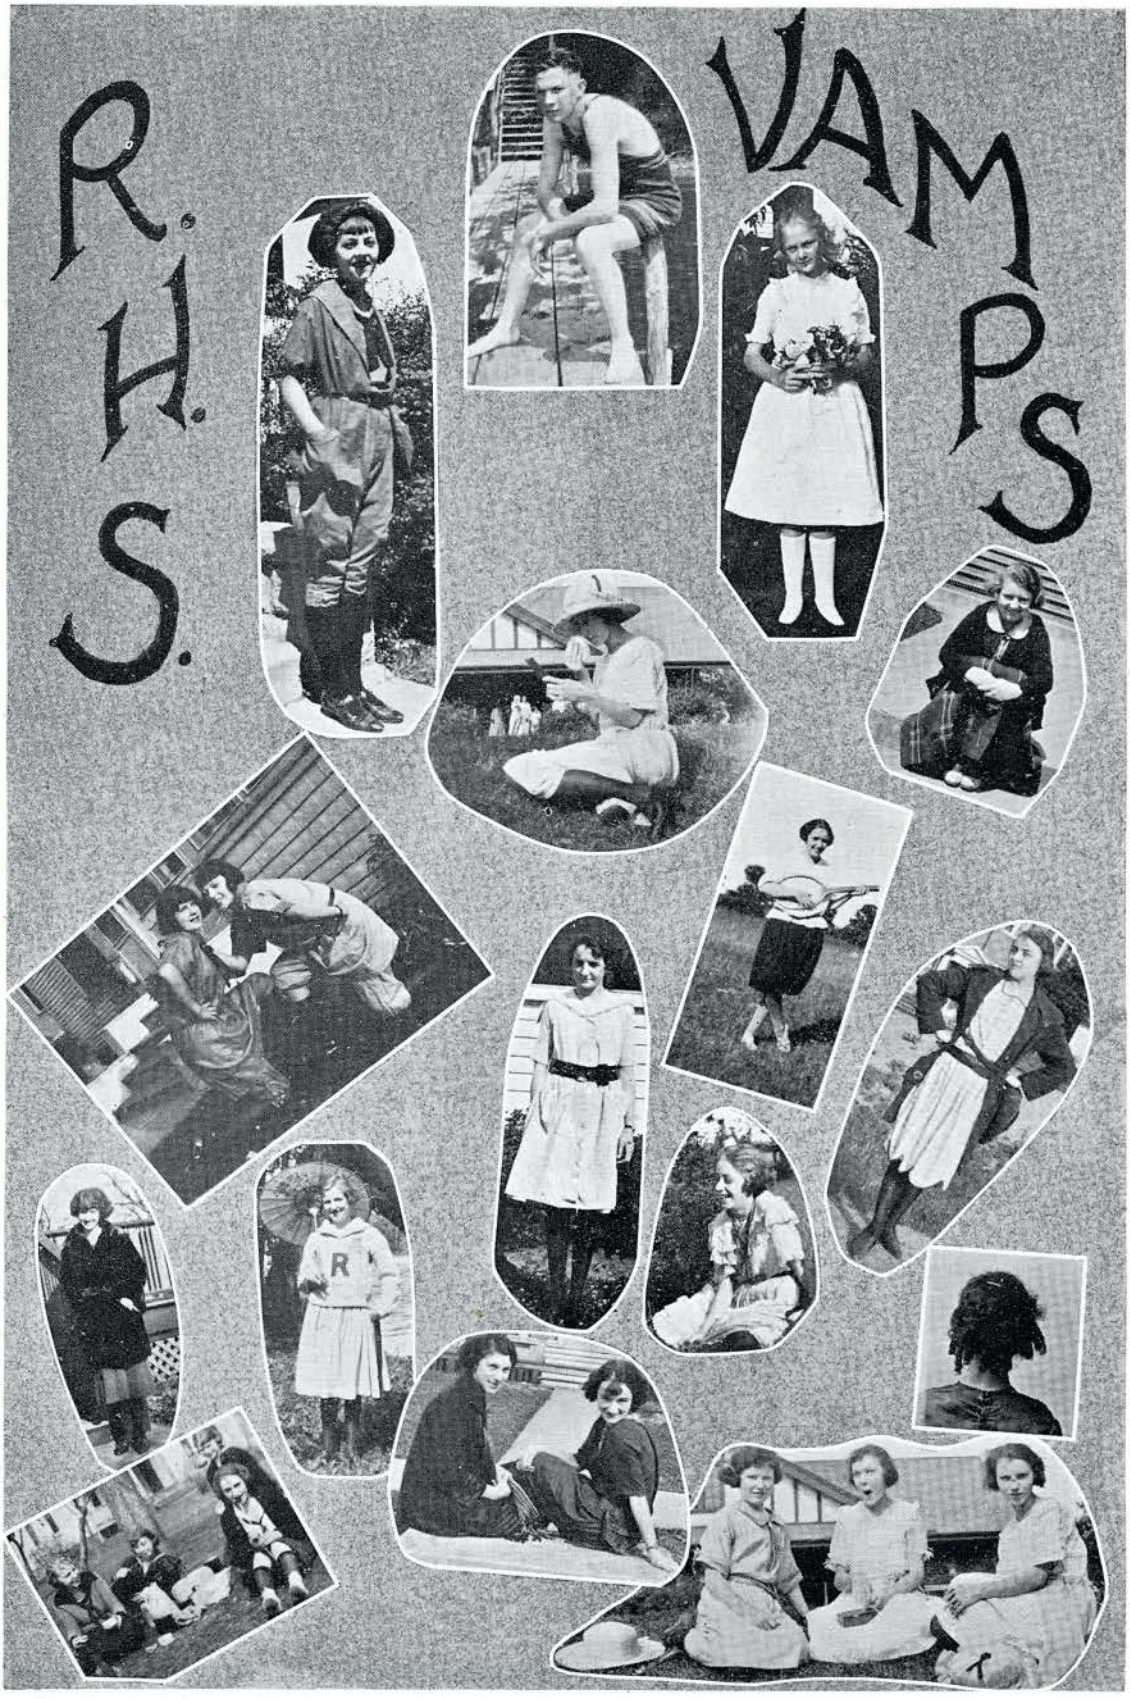

The members of the shorthand team were Gladys Ekeberg, Marie Perry, Lucille Sandell, and Frances England.

LIGHTWEIGHT FOOTBALL SEASON 1922.

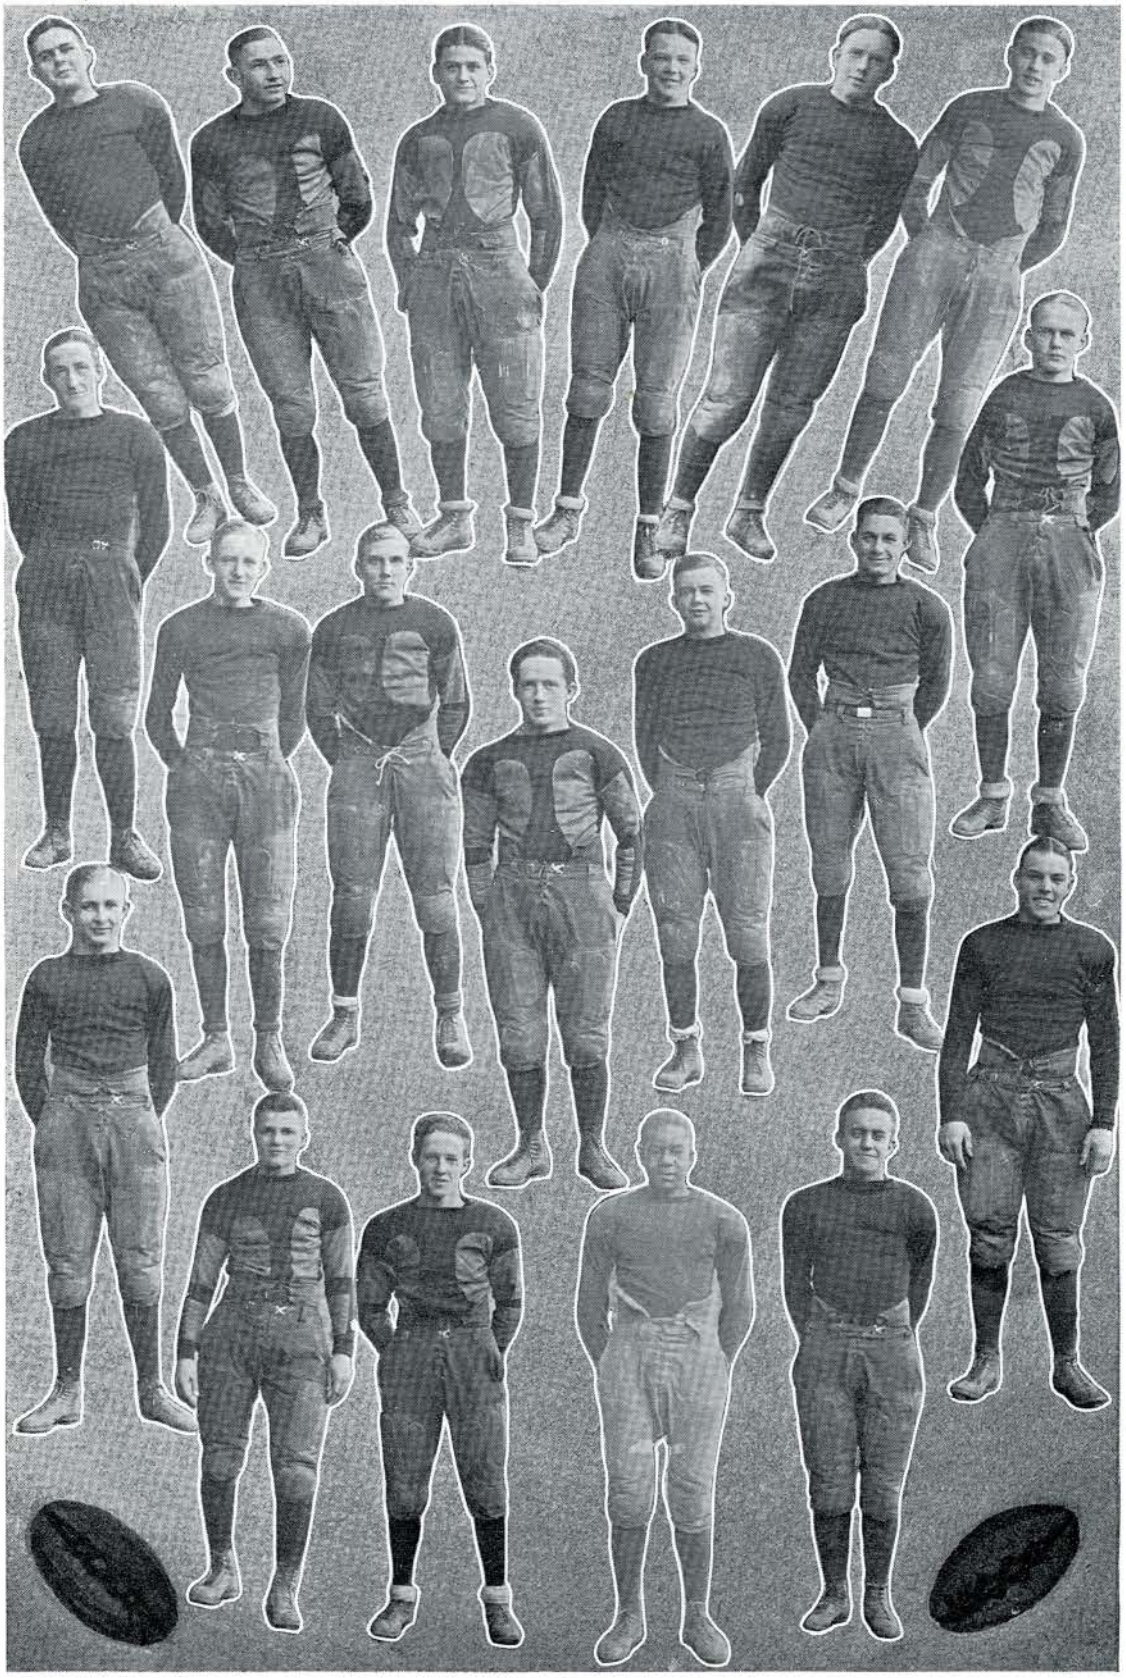

When Coach Louis Erickson issued a call for football candidates, there were about seventy-five boys that reported to him. As Coach Erickson was a new instructor at Rockford High School, it was a very hard task to become acquainted with all the boys at once but he went at it heart and soul and gave Rockford a lightweight team that was equal to any other one in the "Big 7" conference. In the opening game he tried out a team made up of last year's letter men and substitutes who defeated Oak Park 18-13 in a bitter contest. St. Thomas was the next foe to be taken into camp by a 13-12 score. This was one of the best games seen on the gridiron for a long time. On the following Saturday Rockford opened its season against Joliet. On a muddy field Rockford's fleet backfield could do nothing and had to be satisfied with a 0-0 tie. The team was not discouraged by the tie but went to E. Aurora determined to win if they could but E. Aurora surprised them and sent them home on the short end of a 7-0 score. W. Aurora came up to Rockford and was swamped 39-0. On October 27 our great rival, Elgin, came determined to go home with our scalp but a 7-7 tie was the closest that they could come to it. De Kalb was conquered on their home grounds. On November 11 all Rockford journeyed to Freeport to see the two rivals fight it out as to which was superior. The Freeport lights had not lost a game but they were taken down a notch by the 7-7 tie that was the outcome of a great battle. Mt. Morris was defeated in the last game of the season.

The lightweights were led by Dave Anderson who proved to be a very capable leader. He was chosen on the All-Conference team for the second season. The biggest find of the season was Albert Monti the fleet quarterback who in his sophomore year came out and made the team.

THE LIGHTWEIGHT FOOTBALL SQUAD

THE HEAVYWEIGHT'S FOOTBALL SEASON.

Yes, even before school even threatened to open the Heavies received their call to the field. In the middle of the summer the boys began to plan and take hold of themselves so that they might begin at once when school opened.

The first day that school opened some thirty eager boys met their coach, Mr. Chas. E. Beyer who succeeded Mr. E. U. MacDonald, coach for the heavies last season.

Three weeks of very hard work through blisteringly hot days brought the boys eager to win their first game. Regardless of the one hundred and three degrees of sunlight pouring upon them, the Heavies beat Bowen High of Chicago with a six to nothing score.

Mighty Chicago sent another team to defeat the Heavies and cover the Bowen game. The clash came again on a hot day with over heated tempers and crowds. Slowly and silently as a big storm Rockford began and closed a victory of thirteen to zero over Lane Tech.

It was on October 7th that we met our first conference foe and placed our trust of the Championship upon the shoulders of our Heavyweights. It was a fighting game from the start and more opposition than they expected. That long run made by Joliet from one of our kick-off's will never be forgotten by Prison City but must be blotted out of Rockford's mind! The Heavies pulled through with a victory of seven to six.

October 14th saw eighteen sober, serious boys at East Aurora determined to make a real win and let the conference take notice. Rain, mud, and jeers; but they came home with a twelve to zero victory regardless of Aurora's main defense—that reckless punter.

And on October 21st the Heavies bit the dust when West Aurora came with that never forgotten team work. The Heavies being real men, acknowledged defeat and wished West Aurora success for the remainder of her season. Our score was thirteen; theirs, thirty-two. By the way there were at least five thousand at the game.

But the boys were not licked! They were knocked down but they sprang up and slapped victory over on Elgin in such a decided way that she shall never forget it. She had come to win. She thought she could but we knew she couldn't. The score was fourteen to zero.

Our hardest conference game, the keenest competition from unexpected quarters was that at Dekalb. Man! how they fought, how they wanted victory, that honor —but the locals got it, six to zero.

Then came Freeport. Beyer just mentioned "Freeport" and every scrub of the eleven worked steadily and slept less for one week. The Germans were ahead at the half by seven points but the game ended with the Rabs smiling. We won, fourteen to seven. None can forget the royal treatment at Freeport.

November 18th and Mooseheart defeated once in four years. The name had been heard before, the name that team had, their record, but the Heavies could not regard those for they had to win. Every minute was a fight; as time grew short the fight grew intense and then the whistle—a sigh and a seven to zero victory over Mooseheart. Mooseheart defeated West Aurora—but the chance is gone.

On November 18th Rockford witnessed a college game and everyone expressed the desire to see the Heavies play at any time.

Thanksgiving day—a dark horse from the South—Roodhouse. Roodhouse, Champs of Southern Illinois kissed the earth when the R. H. S. football team skidded over with a thirty-five to zero victory.

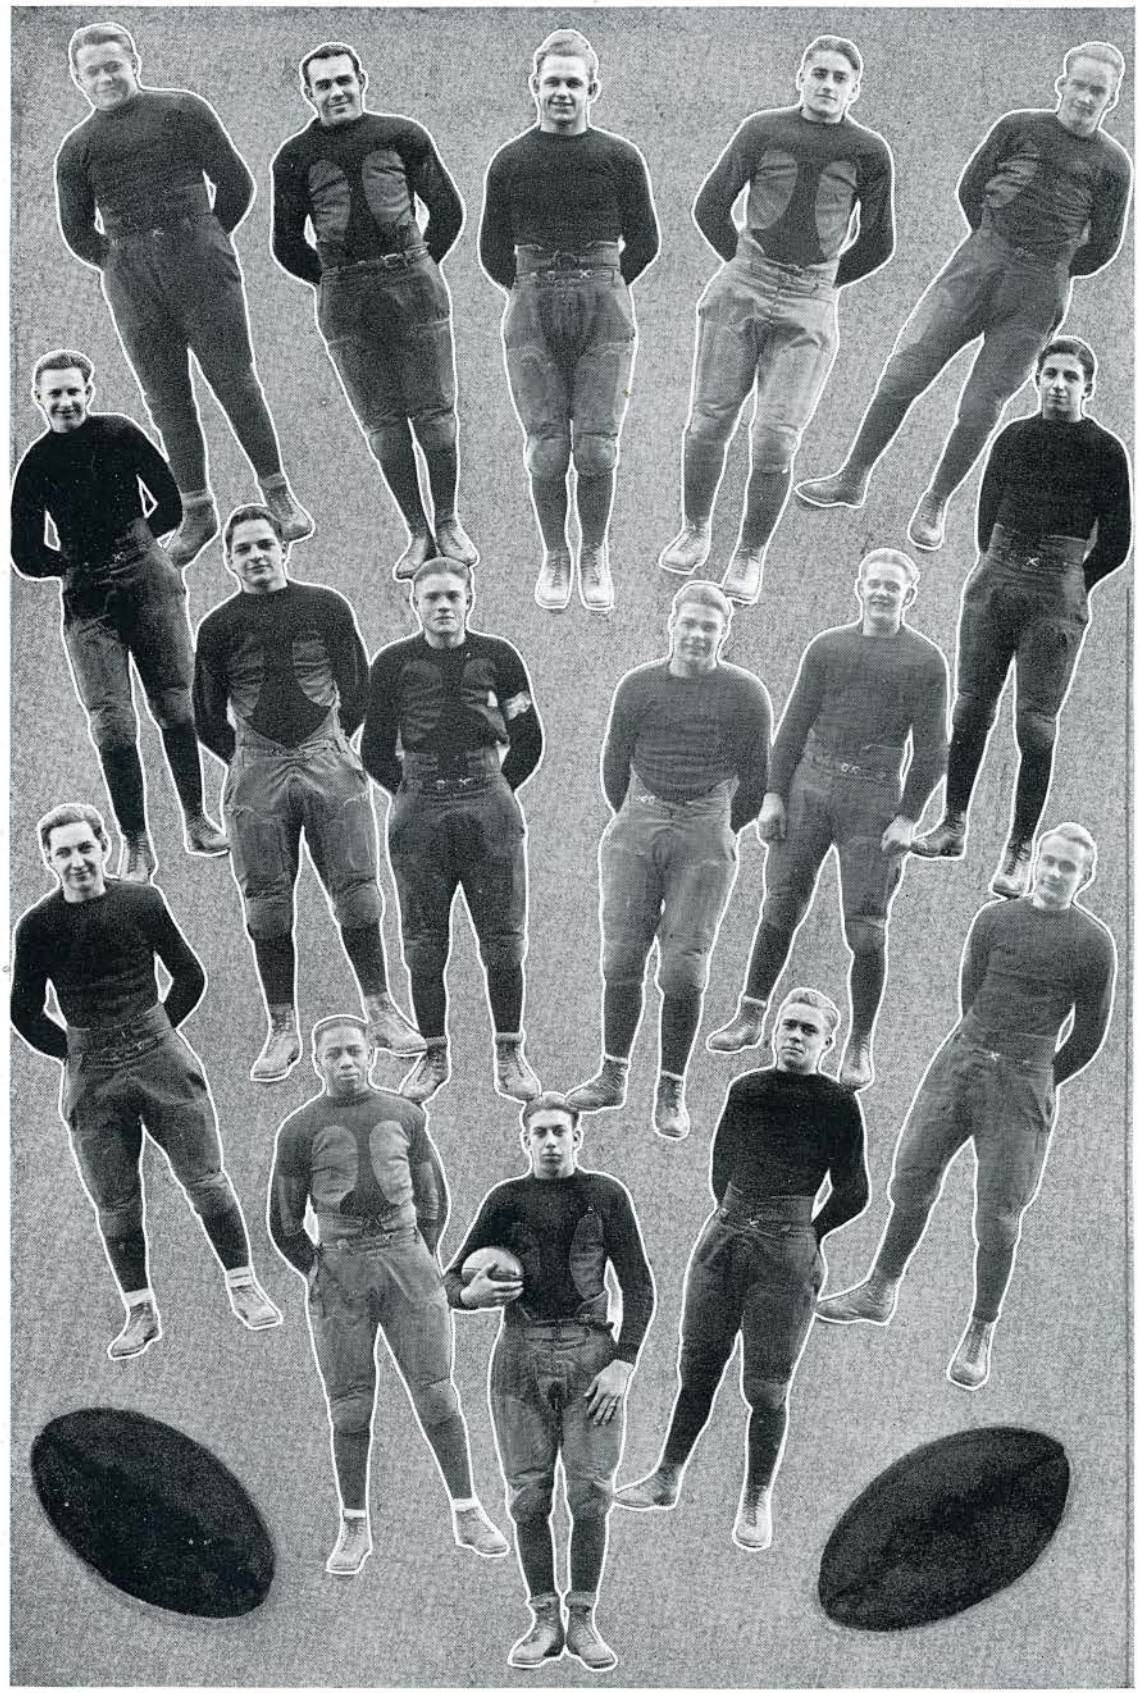

The following boys constituted the Heavyweight team. Those marked with a star are seniors and played their last game Thanksgiving Day.

BASKETBALL

THE LIGHTWEIGHT BASKETBALL SEASON

The lightweight basketball team established the enviable record for themselves this year of being the fastest lightweight team in local annals, as well as proving to be the best and fastest team in the Big Seven conference.

At the beginning of the season Coach Beyer found that he had several of last year's letter men upon whom he could rely. As they were acquainted with the Coach and his methods, is was not a difficult matter to get started, and, once started, there was no stopping them.

The Alumni, according to old, established custom, was the first foe, and the ponies earned their victory only by the slender margin of one point, 29 to 28 being the final score. Two crack Chicago teams, Austin and New Trier, were the next opponents of the Rabs, and both were defeated by scores of 41 to 28 and 30 to 28 respectively.

In the next two games, defeat overwhelmed the ponies, this particular week, seeming to catch them off their stride. At Freeport we were humbled in a practice game 48 to 29, and the following night on our own floor Beloit lights nosed us out 22 to 21.

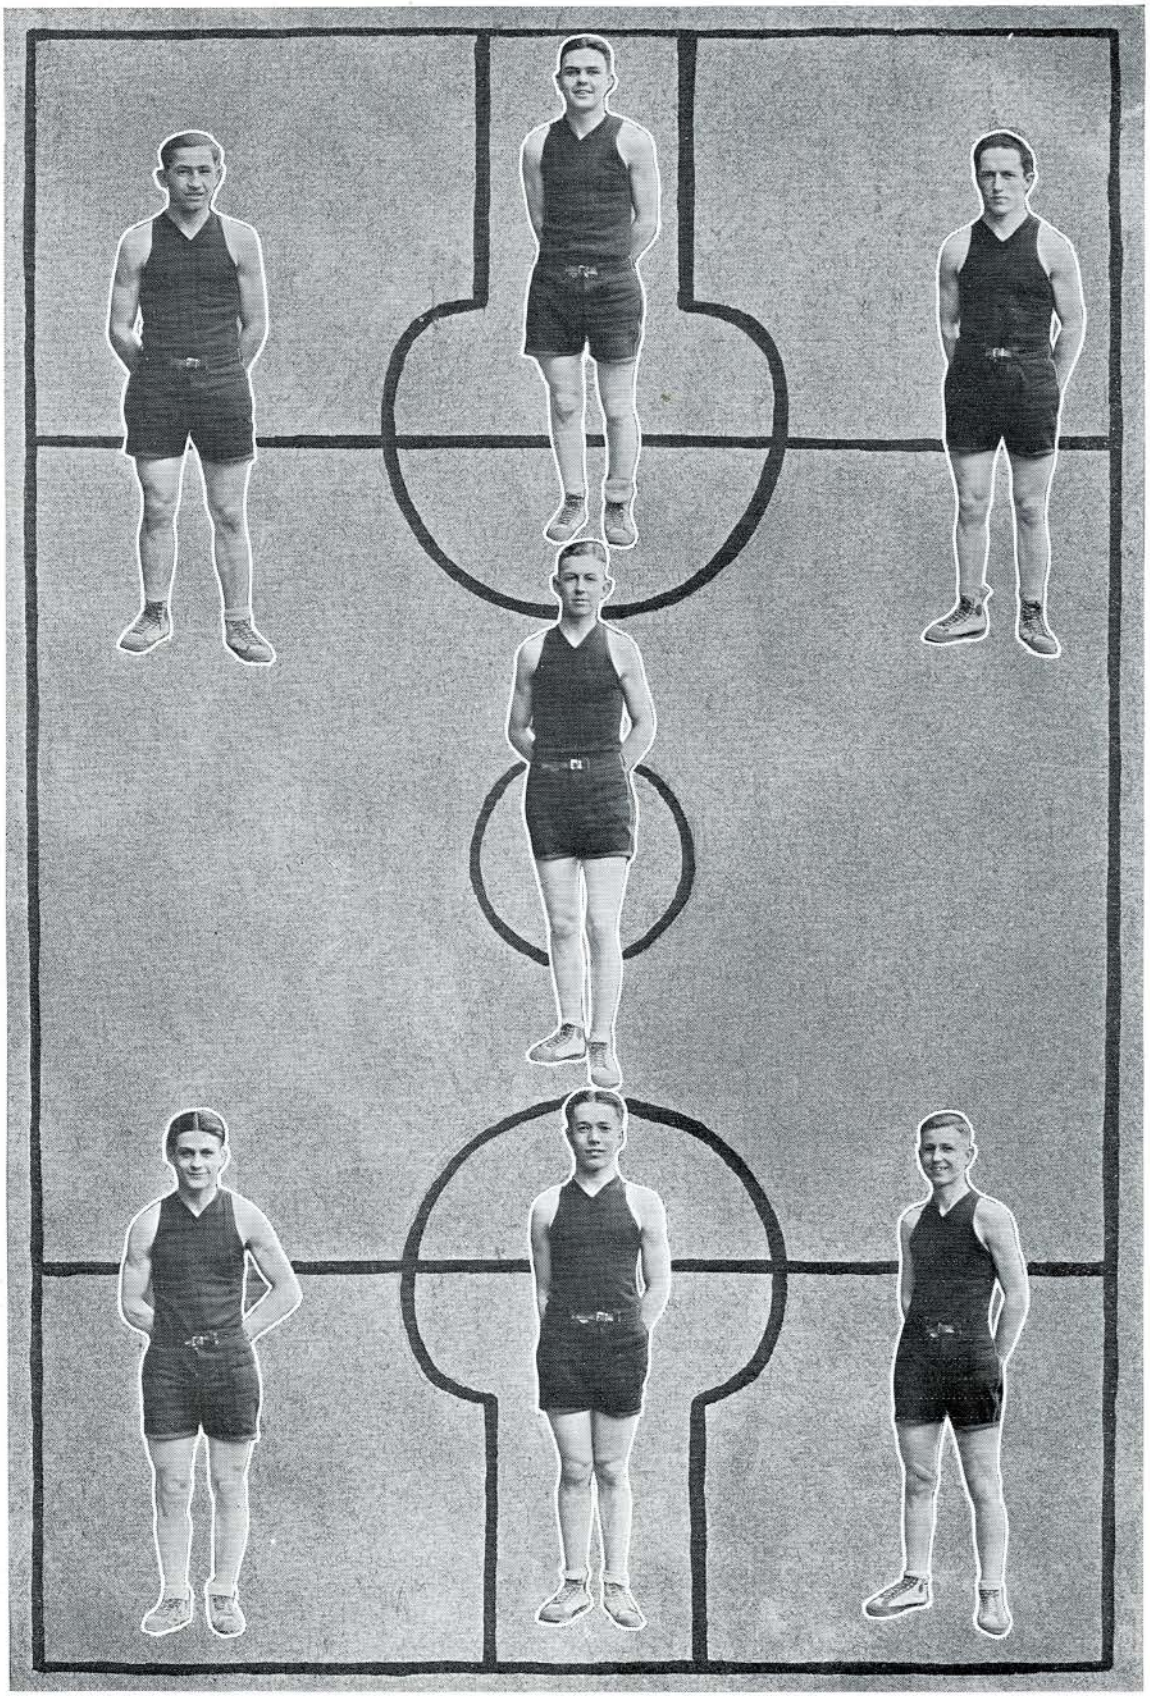

Another Chicago suburban team, Glen Ellyn, met defeat at the hands of the rejuvenated Rabs by a 38 to 15 score the following week, and Beloit was overwhelmed on its own floor 25 to 18 to make it good measure.

The conference games in rapid succession now, Dekalb, East and West Aurora, and Elgin all falling easy victims to the fast traveling Rabs. Elgin fell a victim in two games, and Oak Park, coached by a former Rab coach, F. J. Winters, also dropped two games to the ponies.

Came the end of the season and the annual conference game with Freeport on the home floor, and with the Big Seven title at stake as the reward of battle. Freeport can always be depended upon to play a fighting game, and this year was no exception. Victory, after many breath-taking moments and hair-raising rallies, finally perched on the banners of the Rabs, and we were conference champions by virtue of a 26 to 24 score.

The following men won their letters on the lightweight squad this year: Captain Charles Andrews, Albert Monti, David Anderson, Frank Schnidt, Stanton Wortman, Paul Alberts, Vincent Yankavitch and Walter Countryman.

THE LIGHTWEIGHT BASKETBALL TEAM

THE HEAVYWEIGHT BASKETBALL SEASON.

When Coach McDonald left Rockford last year, the Board of Education had a hard time getting a man to fill the vacancy. They finally secured Louis Erickson of Gary, Indiana, who has proved himself capable of turning out good teams.

Last year when Baker, Stevens, and Hubbard graduated and Garrett and Miltimore only left for a half a year the fans thought that the team of 1923 would not go very far, but Coach Erickson surprised everybody by turning out one of the best teams R. H. S. has ever had.

At the beginning of the season he had Kullberg, Gleichman, Nelson, Garrett and Ralph Johnson and Behr, the last two being lightweights of 1922, who were taken on the tournament squad. This formed a nucleus around which Erickson had to build his team.

When the Alumni game was lost everybody thought R. H. S. was to have a poor year but they soon changed their minds when the Rabs defeated Austin and New Trier, two of the strongest teams in Chicago. Then we journeyed to the cracker box at Freeport and were defeated 35-31. This defeat did not discourage the squad and so they came back and won the "Big 7" title and easily won the District meet held at Rockford.

The sectional tournament at Joliet was a very hard grind because of the strong teams entered. Rockford met Streator in their first game and Streator was defeated 41-18. This put the Rabs in the semi-finals and New Trier was defeated for the sixth time.

Joliet, who had improved 100 per cent since their conference game with R. H. S., was the Rabs opponents in the finals. Rockford was way off form and had a hard time beating Joliet 16-10.

For the sixth consecutive year Rockford went to the State Tournament at Urbana. This year Greenville was defeated 36-23. Rockford played without their running guard, Ralph Johnson, who was sick. Axel Nelson who took his place, played very good ball and was selected All-State Guard. Villa Grove defeated Rockford in the final game 32-29.

Next came the National Tournament in Chicago. Rockford was not picked to go as far as the third round but the Rabs surprised everybody by defeating Pine Bluff, Scott High, Westport, and Charleston, only to be defeated in the finals by a wonderful aggregation from Kansas City, Kansas, who won the title of Champions of the United States while Rockford is satisfied with being the second best team in the country.

This year's team was the tallest team of the state. Axel Nelson was chosen an All-American guard at the close of the tourney in Chicago. Axel deserved all the honor that has come to him.

THE HEAVYWEIGHT BASKETBALL TEAM

THE TRACK SEASON.

Track received a great boost during the season of 1922, and this sport took its rightful place among the major sports of the school.

In the first meet of the season Rockford met Polo and won 106 to 19. This meet revealed to Coach Beyer's eyes that he had two great men in "Pete" Stevens and Ralph Milliman. The next track event was the Rockford to Freeport relay which the Rabs won only after a hard uphill fight. In the second dual meet the Red and Black squad met their old enemies Elgin and the boys pulled down 88 points while their opponents were getting 43. Stevens was the leading point getter for the Rabs. In a triangular meet with Freeport and DeKalb; Rockford was the winner, getting 102 points while the other two schools got 20 and 13 points respectively. Gleichman set a new record in the discus throw in this event.

At the state meet the Rabs took twelfth place, the only men who placed being Cassidy and Gleichman.

The Big Seven Conference meet was won by Rockford with 50 points. At this meet ten conference records were broken. Five of these records were broken by Rockford men. Milliman lowered the record in the 100 and 200 yard dashes, Westerlind the high hurdles, and Clint Hutchins the low hurdles, Gleichman setting a new record in the discus throw.

Rockford met Oregon in a dual meet and was victorious 92 to 34. This meet was featured by the sensational running of Brooks of Oregon in the 880 and Milliman, who set a new school record in the 100 and 220 yard dashes. In their last meet of the season, which was the Northern Illinois, Rockford won from a field of ten schools with 62 points. Three men won prizes for chief point winners in this meet. All were Rabs; they were Milliman, Gleichman, and Hutchins, respectively.

The last outdoor meet of '22 was held at Mooseheart. Rockford was given second place and would have won it had Gleichman not sprained his ankle just three days before this meet.

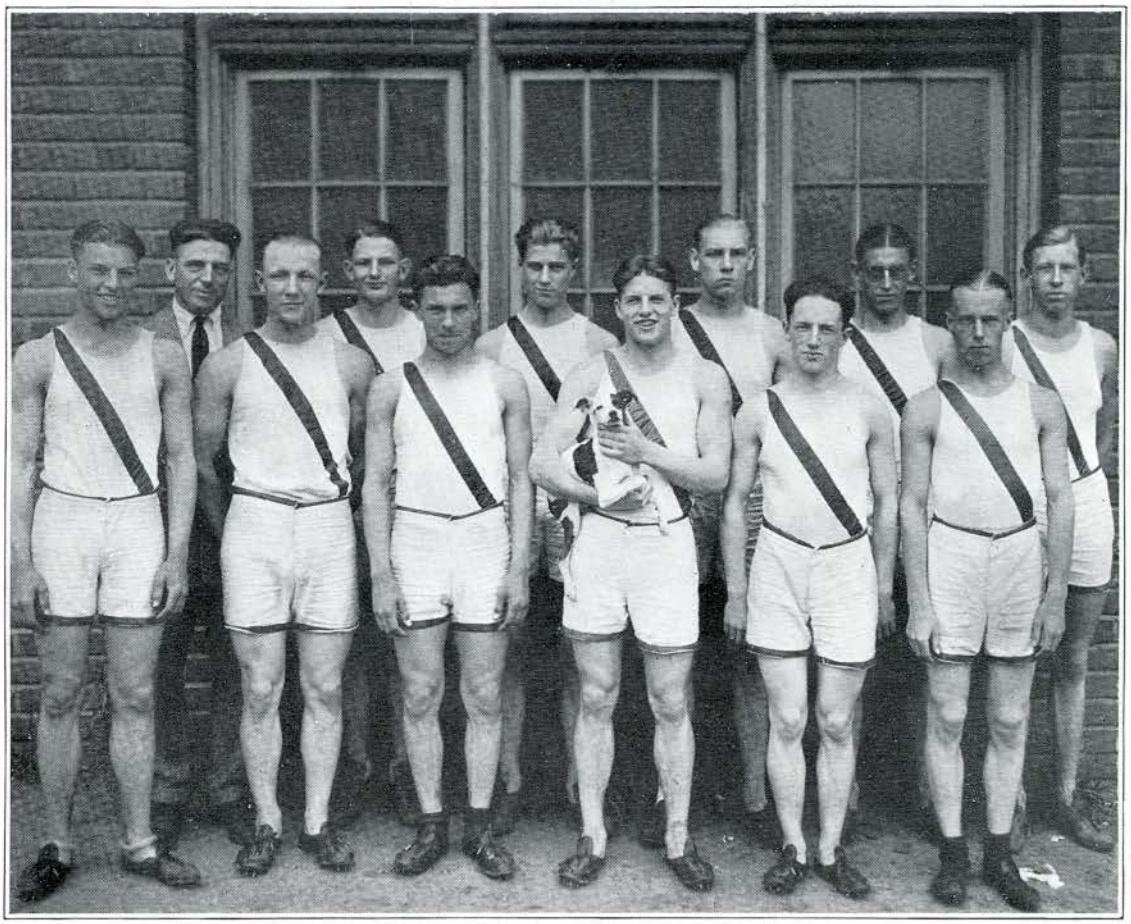

An added feature that Coach Beyer gives his track men each year is a Pentathlon, a five event all-round championship. This year it was won by Milliman with 2813 points; Gleichman was second with 2785 and Stevens third with 2706. The winner of this event is proclaimed the best all-round track man in the school.

The '23 Indoor Season.

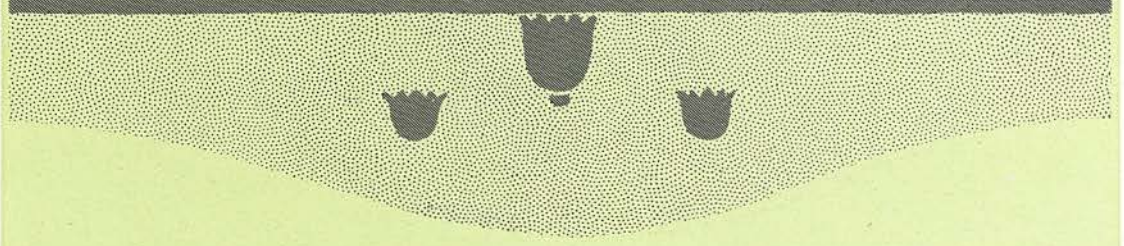

A relay team composed of Milliman, Stocking, Cassidy and Alberts went to Chicago and, competing against fifteen other teams, won second place.

Right now with over a hundred ambitious fellows out for the spring sport, prospects look very good and soon this sport will be on a plane with the football and basketball of this school.

THE TRACK SQUAD

SWIMMING

THE 1923 SWIMMING SEASON.

Swimming! Yes, new and yet there appeared over thirty candidates when Coach C. A. Beyer called for men. This year being the second season Beyer planned great things and succeeded in finding very excellent teams to compete with.

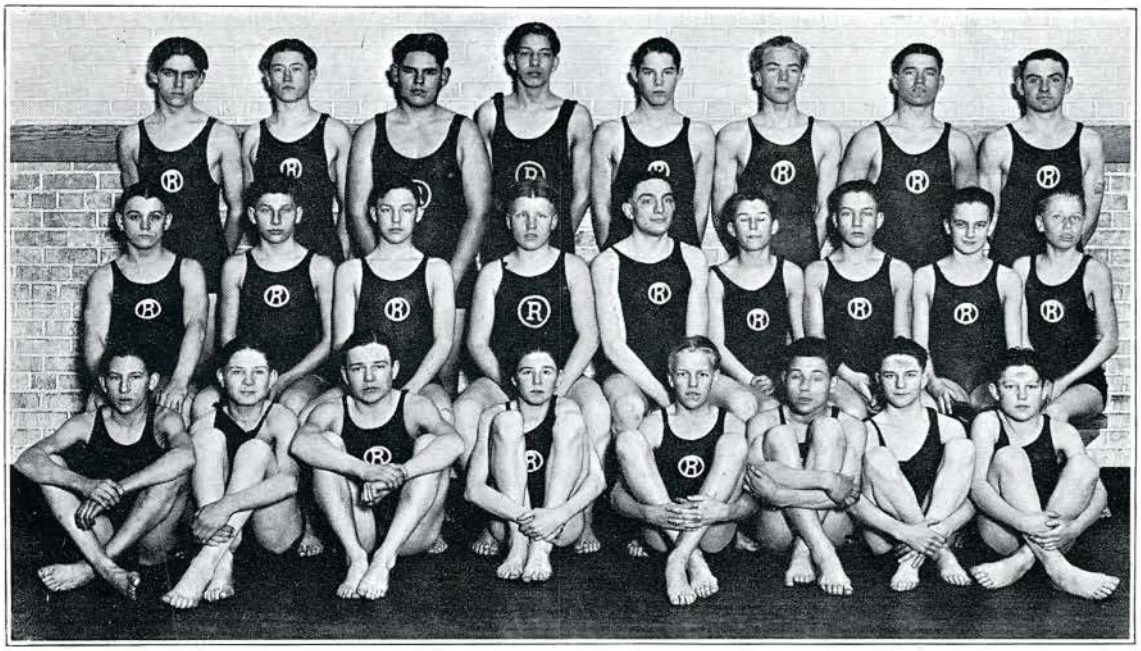

At every meet the "tankers" competed in fancy diving, relays, races, and strokes. Probably because we were so new at our game that our success was not so great.

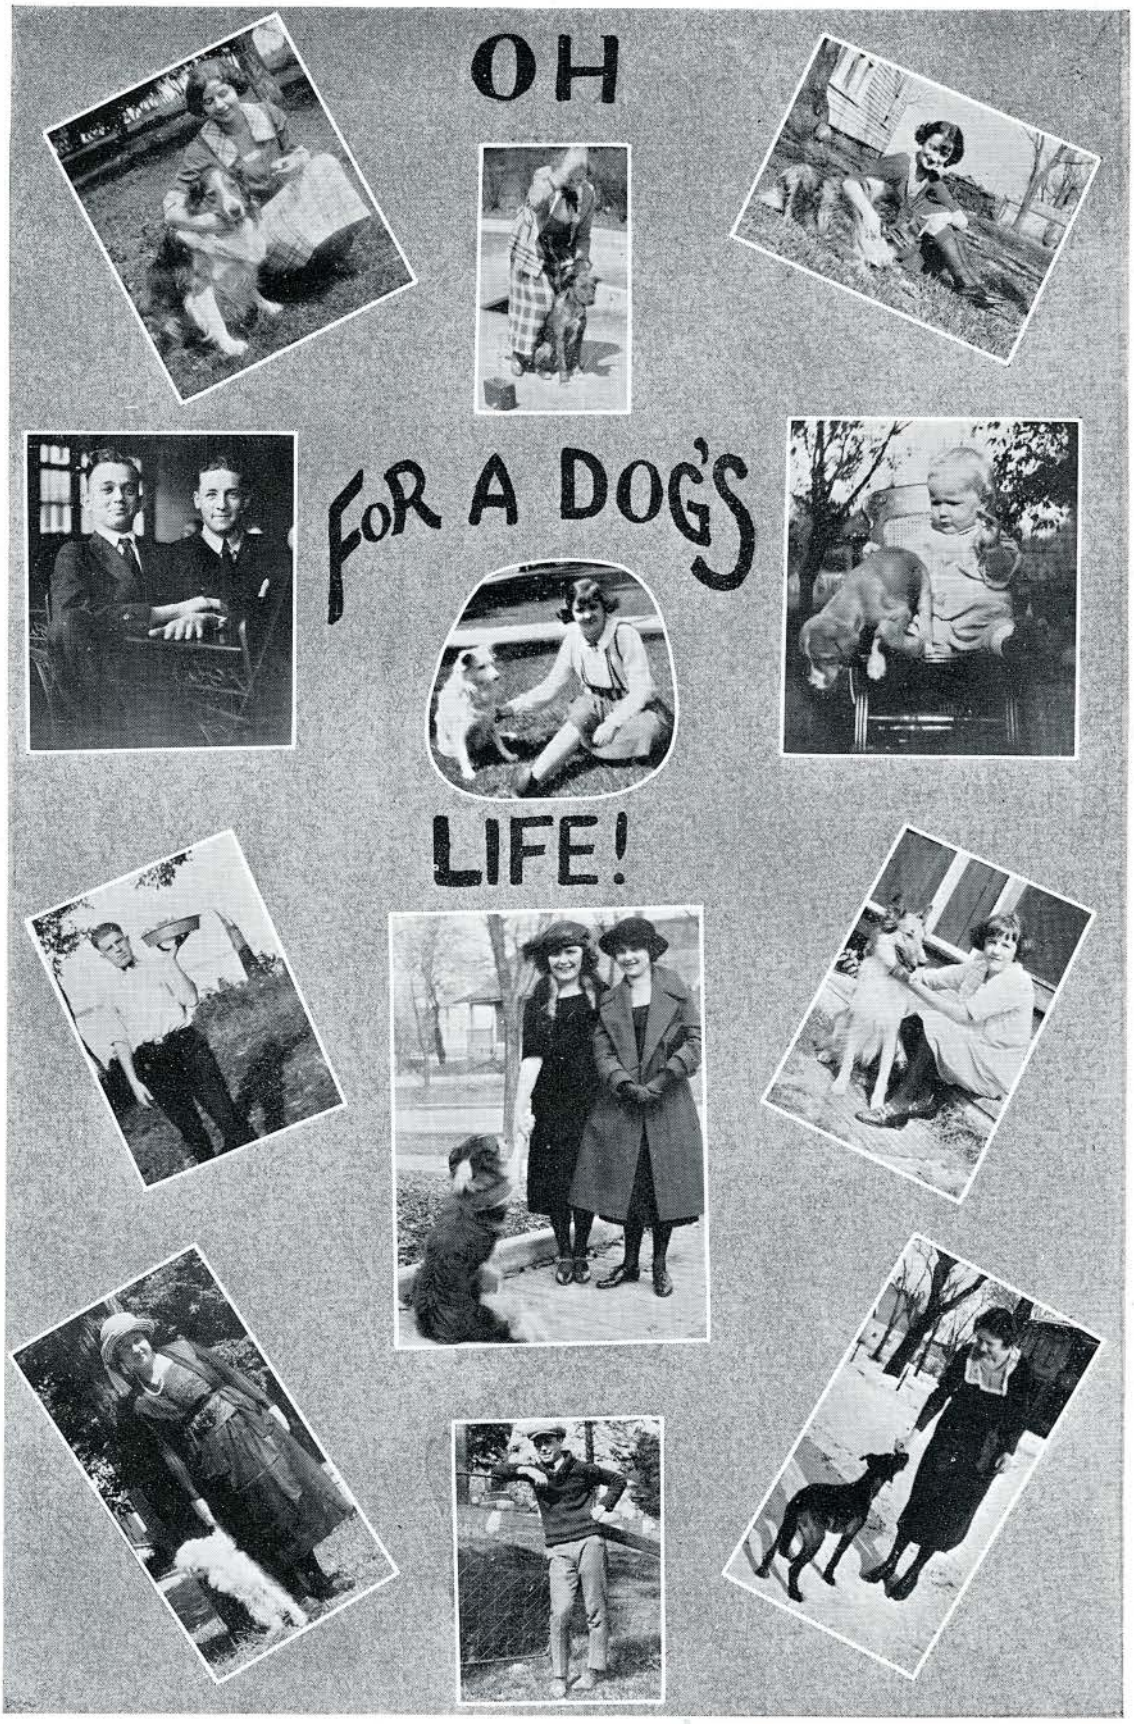

The experienced and fighting teams that we met were Main Township High, of Desplains, Ill., who defeated us in two meets; Englewood High and Oak Park High also gave us defeats. The boys had the opportunity of entering the National Interscholastic Meet at the Northwestern University where they pulled down many individual honors.

Yes, we had stars in swimming and winners, too, but individuals only. We can not say enough for the efforts that Mr. Beyer puts in placing Rockford High School teams in all events and as victors. Give us two more years, providing Beyer remains, and we can't help but be winners.

Those who did their best to make records and honor for old Rockford High are as follows: F. Dean, D. Dean, Kjellstrom, Walsh, Spatz, Maher, Gilberts, Hibbard, Bartlett, Thornborrow, Stoll, Storer, Sparks, Rowley, Hinch, Erickson, Pelgen, Kettleson, Fagerstrom, Miller, Austin, Portch, Byrd, Smith, and Baer.

PROLOGUE

For a period of time equivalent to four of Old Sol's revolutions through the ecliptic, we, the members of this staff, have looked forward to this event, the culmination of our high school careers, the time when we should be numbered among those unfortunates blamed for the composition of this book.

The time has arrived, we draw forth our prayer rugs and chant our praises to Allah.

Said persons seek not praise—let "Everyman" abstain from such thought for worthy commendations could flow from the lips of none but Alighievi Dante and such renowned comedians.

Therefore fellow students and "cake-eaters," you should congratulate yourselves on the employment of such an illustrious group who endeavor to arouse a spark of mirth within your serious souls.

In preceding years the members of joke staffs have turned out good work, we acknowledge that, but nevertheless we believe ours to be even worse.

The first member of this group of "High School Wits," is Marguerite Eleanor Duwe, a very busy young woman who has devoted much of her precious time in order that her fellow students might not go forth into the cruel world believing that there is no Santa Claus. Miss Duwe has prepared a series of lectures on this subject which can be heard most any seventh hour in Room 5.

Then we have Evelyn Augusta Howell, who has put every ounce of her energy and face powder into her work. Seriously and diligently she has contributed these elements of her personality and is largely responsible for the succeeding material.

Miss Howell hopes that appreciation of her work will not be manifested in any physical way. Owing to the increase in cigar production, resulting in the exorbitant price demanded for cabbages, she is not likely to meet with any such violence.

But hold—Garnett Belinda Paul, cheerful, smiling Garnett—the name alone suffices to portray the nature of this noteworthy young woman. Is there any name in the Hungarian language that creates such a soothing feeling upon the reader

Besides being the possessor of a bewitching name, she firmly believes there is nothing equal to Wrigley's chewing gum.

Next is Stewart Lloyd Hiram Walker, who, because of his sociable nature and tendency to converse with others, has often found it difficult to leave Miss Kruger in the Aud. the seventh hour. For this reason the other members have often felt his absence in Room 5, while composing this section. Nevertheless he has worked zealously, many times being so absorbed that he has dozed off into profound slumbers.

We now cite Kenneth John Nattrass. This honorable young man has cheerfully dedicated his services in this composition which has necessitated the neglect of his scholastic duties at various times. Several times he has declined the editorship of the Hot Dog Magazine and other literary periodicals.

Mr. Nattrass believes that there will be a time when soap will be placed in the school wash-rooms and a system of elevators installed. Mrs. Stevens heartily endorses him in the latter belief.

Now that we have enumerated the virtues of these various individuals, we will close with a plea that these bits of "wittycism" may antagonize your funny-bone and precipitate a jovial feeling.

If this is not possible, we suggest the old saying about being in Rome.

K. N. '23.

Miles of Smiles

Do you remember Way Back When:

Miss Hunter's hair was grey?

Eggie May wore his hair straight up in the air?

"Stuke" Walker had a "crush" on Betty Andrew?

There were stairs between the north and middle building?

Miss Remsburg presided over us in Room 200?

Clayton C. made futile attempts to woo ————?

Orvis D. was a Freshie?

Fred Kullberg wore short trousers?

Kenneth Sells was considered one of the infants?

Help! Help!

Queen of Spain: "Moi! gracia. The baby has a stomach ache."

Lord Chamberlain (excitedly): "Page, call in the secretary of the interior."

Delno Johnson: "Why, did you say these H. S. seniors reminded you of 'Rose of Washington Square?' "

Cully Johnson: " 'No sign of the Future, but Oh, what a past.' "

"Darling!" she said, "do you love me as much as ever?"

"Yes, dearie," said he with his head buried in his newspaper.

That ought to have satisfied her, but she had to ask, "why?"

"Oh, I don't know. Habit, I suppose."

Martha (age nine:) "Daddie, is cofferdam a bad word?"

Father: "No, my dear, it is perfectly all right."

Martha: "Well, my teacher has a cold and I hope she'll cofferdam head off."

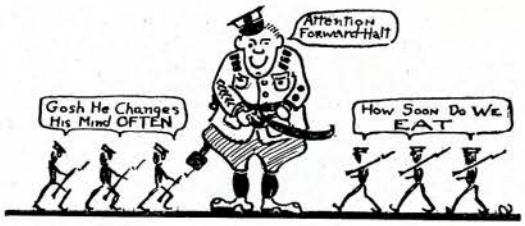

No, Shir, I don't care if there ish a fire; I won't go 'cause I promised m' wife not to get lit up.

Sam: "But, my dear, you know the old proverb, 'Love is blind?' "

Frances: "Yes, but the neighbors aren't, so pull down the shades."

"Rats," shouted Evie O., as she dropped a handful of beautiful golden hair.

Shoes and Shoes

I called on Dot,
  I stayed till late;
(Her father wears
  A number eight.)

I called on May,
  Left just in time
(To avoid her father's Number nine.)

I called on June,
  Never again;
(Her old man swings

I called on Flo,
  And I have said

The Immodest Future

"Tell me about the play my dear," said Mrs. Prood in 1930.

"Well," said her daughter, "in the first act the girl who plays the vampire comes on the stage taking off her wrist watch—"

"Oh, isn't that awful," exclaimed Mother Prood. "Those actresses have no sense of decency left."

Smitten by Beauty

I was struck by the beauty of her hand,
  Then I tried to hold it and—
I was struck by the beauty of her hand.

From the Scholars

The following are a few of the latest "howlers" by the children:

"A vacuum is a large empty space where the Pope lives." "Pompei was destroyed by an eruption of saliva from the Vatican." "Tennyson wrote "In Memorandum." "Typhoid fever may be prevented by fascination." "Parallel lines are the same distance all the way, and do not meet unless you bend them." "An angle as a angle is a triangle with only two sides." "Gravitation is that which if there were none we should fly away." "Louis XVI was gelatined during the French Revolution." "Horsepower is the distance one horse can carry a pound of water in an hour." Gerrilla warfare is where men ride on monkeys."

Immortality

Father's in his study,
  Mother's in the hall,
And so I put my finger marks
  Upon the parlor wall.
For once the whipping's over
  The pain will pass away,
But the marks upon the parlor wall
  Will stay and stay and stay.

Kathleen H.: "Why did you let him kiss you?"

Dorothy A.: "He threatened to scream if I didn't."

Wedding Bells for the Journalist and Heiress

(Does this mean Clayton Cassidy?)

He was a headline writer for a daily newspaper. She was the daughter of a prosperous bootlegger. They sat on the beach and watched the moonlight ripple on the ocean. After a silence he spoke.

"Scribe Woos Hooch King's Daughter, Meets Fate at Seashore."

"Oh, Tom," she murmured fainting, "when did you first know you really cared?"

"Journalist Smitten at Net Tilt. Loses Heart as Heiress Wins Tourney," he answered.

"And am I the only girl you ever loved?" she asked.

"Rum Magnate's Daughter Downs Rivals," he replied. "Pops Question on Beach."

"Tom," she breathed softly.

He clasped her tenderly in his arms and whispered in her ear "Beach Parley Huge Success," says Scribe.

I told my girl
I loved her chin
Oh, what a fix,
I now am in.

She went to work
To please anew.
She looks like heck;
She now has two.

High School Loaf

One Freshman.
Two rich, indulgent parents.
One car—the larger the better.
From one to two pins on left corner of vest.
Enough "good line" to get by—and then some.
Brimming cup of dates.
From 4 to 6 crushes (sifted and mixed at intervals).
Enough liquid to mix well
Stir ingredients and bake from one to six years in R. H. S. Allow just enough study to keep from falling. Turn out on a well polished dancing floor, or a cozy room with lights turned low. Garnish with bevy of pretty girls.

Bee Miller: "I hear they've called off the circus for this afternoon."
Kitty Ebsen: "You don't say. Why was that?"
B. M.: "The cook left the coffee pot outside of the tent and the elephant swallowed the grounds."

A Stiff One

We'll have to rehearse this, said the driver as the rough-box fell out on the way to the cemetery.

It's a wise cork that knows its own "pop."

Why do people laugh up their sleeves? I suppose it's because their funny bone is there.

Definite

Miss Krueger: "Now James, would it be proper to say, 'you can't teach me nothing?' "
J. Duesler: "Yes, Ma'am."
Miss K.: "Why, James, I thought you knew better than that."
J. Duesler: "You said all there is to be said."

Louise M.: "Some people do not seem to realize the war is over."
Dale M.: "Which one?"

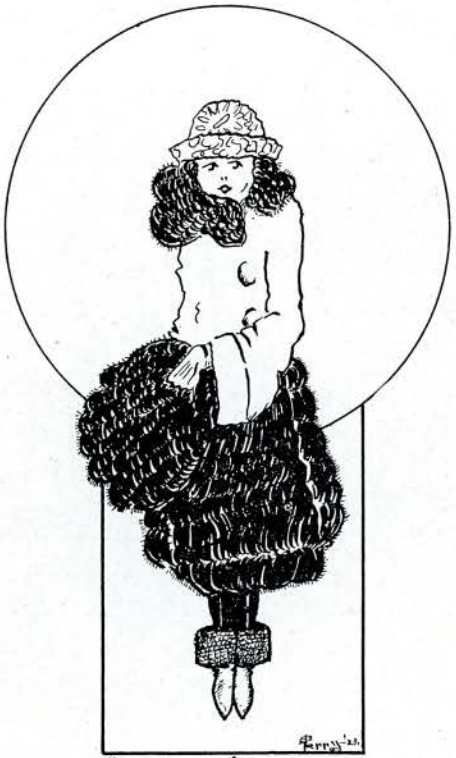

Lady: "I should like to buy an easy chair for a gentleman."
Salesman: "Morris?"
Lady: "No, Clarence."

"Do Englishmen understand American slang?"
"Some do. Why?"
"My daughter is to be married in London and the Earl has cabled me to come across."

Miss Krueger states that the people in the Aud. use the same old tricks that were used one hundred years ago. We didn't think you were such a cut up when you went to school, Miss Krueger.

Oh, winter came it's sultry breeze and found me here in my B. V. D's,
Now summer comes with it's heat and
burning,
In Dad's flannels I'm sojourning.

Professor: Which are the uttermost parts of the earth?
Bill Garrett: The parts where there are the most women.
Professor: What do you mean?
Bill: I mean that where there are the most women there is the most uttered.

"Russian" the Season

Hair

There is hair and there are hairs. As can be seen from a little stroll through our great halls, there is a great abundance and variety of hair and hairs, and our Alma Mater affords us every type. There is bobbed hair in all it's different phases, frizzy hair, stringy hair, marcelled hair, bushy hair, dyed hair, hair combed "fan" style, hair sweetly combed with biscuits on each ear and a more or less straight part down the middle, and last, but not least, the Rudolph Valentino hair with that patent-leather finish. Shades of the Sheik! We could rave on here for months, but we won't, for we simply must tell you about the little hairs.

We must even have a special paragraph for the little hairs. Perhaps you have noticed them already. First of all there are the little hairs that cluster so irresistably on the upper lip, often termed by vulgar people as "misplaced eyebrows," but we haven't got the heart to call them that. They are so frail, so delicate,—it almost brings the tears to our eyes. We have a lump in our throat now. Then there are the darling little hairs that curl so softly around the sweet, white necks and pink cheeks (artificial or otherwise, sh' all shame t'ush) of our flappers, "tendrils," our poets call 'em. To go on. There are awe-inspiring hairs which often stand erect out of an otherwise marvelously smooth and glistening Valentino pomp. And oh! the agony of mind and spirit of those blessed by such! You cannot help but think of one. Harold Teen, and his futile endeavors to tame said hairs. 'Twas ever thus. We must not by any means forget the little hairs which constitute the sideburns of our male-sex. Hast ever thought what power he's embodied in them? Hist! then. They may change a man into a toy-boy! Were ever hair so honored?

Going with your permission, from the sublime to the ridiculous—er—we mean vice versa, we will endeavor to give to you, kind reader, our honest opinion as to what we believe to be the most striking coiffures in our school. We firmly believe that Miss Eddy carries off second prize. After long days and sleepless nights of the deepest thought upon the matter, we were no nearer a conclusion as to who gets first honors. Perhaps you, dear reader, could offer a suggestion. To proceed—Mlle. Bellinghausen's coiffure is striking to say the least, but we must admit it suits her personality, (which is charming!) Florence Ekstrom has the perfect and perpetual marcel (just like her complexion). She is a living ad for the hair dressers. But Evelyn Howell's hair! There is a natural marcel to perfection and the only one in school. Ah! if zee great M'sieu Marcel heemself could only see eet-eh? Miss Hunter deserves honorable mention, not so much for her hairdressing but for her color scheme, which is delightful. Of all the bobbed heads we can't pick one that's especially distinctive unless its Violet Nysted's. Her's is the centipede's goloshes!

Heavens! we almost forgot the boy. The first hair that pops into our mind is Burdette Flynn's. The immortality—boys—may their bones rest in peace! "Quite passé," you murmur, and shrug your pretty shoulders. You're darn right—passé. Perhaps not yet but soon—just like Indians, and buffalos and flappers. All things must have an end—but what next? We resign our fate to Allah! To Russell Erickson we would recommend a hairnet to guard aginst the cascades which adorn his fair brow, or perhaps some gooey stuff would work just as well. How about it Russ?

We could ramble on thusly forever, but we're not gonna do it, so in closing we will all stand and sing.

FADS AND FANCIES OF R. H. S.

The Fate of the Toreadors

A toy-boy donned his toreadors
To go and see his Jane;
He just arrived at the garden gate
When out his Janie came.

You silly kid, you cake-eater,
You simply turn and scoot
And never come again to me
Till you have changed your suit.

He turned and ran unto his home
And changed his trousers quick
He jumped into his good grey suit
And hurried back so slick.

Now you're a decent man, you are
To come into my home;
A boy who wears those jingling bells
Is off up in the dome.

His toreadors they'll ever lie,
Down by the cellar stair,
For he has learned that foolish fads,
Are more than we can bear.

The Changing World

In days of yore
The girlies wore
Their skirts up to their knees.

They bobbed their locks
And rolled their socks
Were deaf to any pleas.

They flapper-walked
And baby-talked
But now, from what one sees
THEM DAYS ARE GONE FOREVER.

Some People Have An Idea That—

Dorothy Dalton is a sister to the Dalton boys.

Tom Mix used to a bartender.

Ben Turpin is not really cross-eyed.

Pat Rooney is an Irishman.

Lenine and Trotzky belong to the Russian Ballet.

Woolworth and Singer Buildings always have snow on top of them.

Sandy Hook is a Scotchman.

George M. Cohan is a Jew.

Flo Ziegfeld is a young girl.

Huckleberry Finn is a French pastry.

Encyclopedia is something to ride.

The President has nothing to do but play golf and have his picture taken.

Al Jolson is as black as he is painted.

Professor: (attempting to be witty in geometry class): And can any of you gentlemen tell me where has my polygon?

Leroy K. (in the rear): Up the geometree, sir.

The Season's Find

Mrs. Gibson: "Just think, they manufacture a quarter of a billion needles in this country every year.'"

Mr. Gibson: "Then it must be the thread shortage that prevents you from sewing the buttons on my clothes." '

Other lads, they're not afraid;
Other lads, they show they're caring;
Other lads—they know a maid.
Wiser Jack (?) than ever you were,
Will's with gayer spirit blest,
Robin's kindlier and truer,—
Why should I love you the best?

Other lads, their eyes are bolder,
Young they are, and strong and slim,
Bob (R.) is straight and broad of shoulder,
Donald (K.) has a way with him,
David (S.) stands a head above you,
Dick's (C.) as brave as Lancelot,—
Why, ah, why, should I love you?
Naturally I do not.

Two Heads are Better Than One—
But It Looks Worse.

All in a Circle

"I'm always in the ring," said the napkin.

"Me, too," bellowed the boxer.

"I shone in one last night," said the moon.

"I wish I were," sighed the fourth finger of the left hand.

It's too deep for me, grumbled the absent minded college Prof. as he fell into the open man-hole.

Carlton P.: I thought you were dead, Finch.

Finch S.: Yes, they had a story around that I was dead, but it was another man. I knew it wasn't me as soon as I heard it.

Harold, said the teacher: Tell what you know about the Mongolian race.

I wasn't there, explained Harold hastily, I went to the football game.

First Tourist: "How far from here to the next station?"
Second Tourist: "Roughly speaking—25 miles.

Many girls think they are religious because they are fond of Hims.

I suppose the maid does all the hard work?
No, my wife still makes the biscuits.

Second from the left: "Do you belong to a golf club?"
Second from the right: No, I borrowed this one."

"Irish will out," muttered the potato as he crept through the Ould Sod.

"See that guy? I'd like to beat him up, but he's too big for me."
"Throw a rock at him."
"He's too far away. That's twice as far as I can throw."
"Well, then throw twice."

Orchestra Drummer: "I'm the fastest man in the world."
Alex T., Violinist: "How's that?"
O. D.: "Time flies, doesn't it?"
V.: "So they say."
O. D.: "Well, I beat time."

Soph: Things are coming down nowadays.
Junior: Yes, they are.
Soph: Bread has come down from 16 ounces to 12 ounces and we get less dough for the same money.

Oh, Mr.

She was peeved and called him Mr.
Not because he went and Kr.
But the thing that made her sore
Was, that on the night before
This same Mr. Kr. Sr.

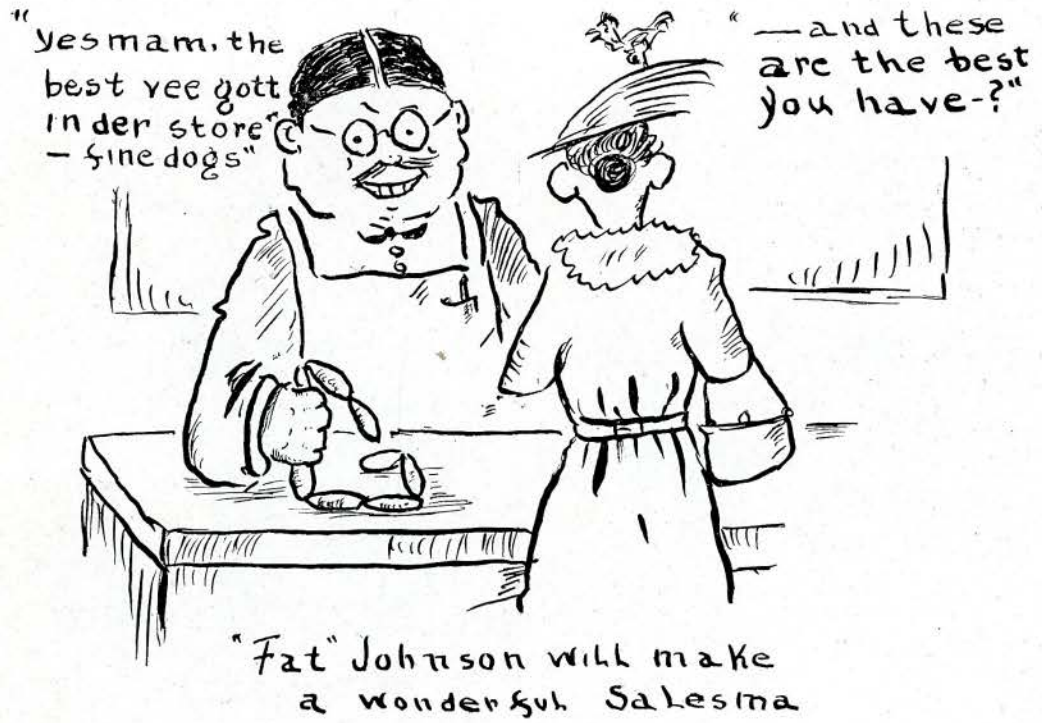

If bicycle riding is revived there will be more peddlars.

These are the days when the girls stamp their feet, clap their hands, beat a tattoo with their teeth and then say, "Nc-o-ooo, I'm not cold—ddd."

Is This a Joke?

Why is it that when a fellow spends time and money showing a girl a good time, she thinks he is putting himself under so much obligation to her that he ought to marry her, too?

"Dot" E: "Is it true that your father was a policeman?"
"Dot" G: "No, but he went with them a lot."

Condensed Message

"Oooooh Ruth, what does a carnation mean in the language of the flowers?"

Ruth B.: "Who sent you some?"

Louise M.: "My steady."

Ruth B.: "Huh—from a contented calf."

After all, love is probably nothing but a chemical reaction. But aren't the laboratory experiments interesting?

He was angry
He showed his teeth—
I still contended
They were too high—
But I bought a set.

Won't you come and make a four at bridge, sir?

I'm sorry, but I don't play bridge.

You don't play bridge? Then what on earth did you join a golf club for?

"Doggone this here anti-trust movement," growled the irrepressible as he glared at the chaperone.

Wisdom

They were standing at the front gate.

"Won't you come into the parlor and sit a little while, Leslie dear?"

"N-No, I guess not," replied Leslie, hesitatingly.

"I wish you would," the girl went on. It's awfully lonesome. Mother has gone out and father is upstairs groaning with rheumatism in the legs."

"Both legs?" asked Leslie.

"Yes, both legs.'"

"Then, I'll come in a little while."

Dolls vs. Dollars

It's unfair. Men admire women with a slim figure, but men with a slim "figure" stand no chance a-tall among the fair sex these days.

"Stuke" W.: "Say, there's a wonderful game named after you."

Kenneth N.: "Zat so?"

"Stuke:" "Yah, Rummy."

Gracious Conductor: "S'all right lady, you can ride on your face."

Evelyn O.: "Thanks, but I would rather sit down."

There are two ways to win a woman. One is to spend money on her. So is the other.

Barber: "You say you have been here before? I don't remember your face."

Hearl P.: "It's all healed up now."

Do you like music?

Yep.

Then listen to the band around my hat.

Something New

Madge W. (to Police Chief): What did you do with the photograph I sent you of myself?

Chief: Great Caeser's ghost, I think I put it in the rogues' gallery.

M. Lillis: "How do you know he is in love?"

George G: "What else would make a man absent minded enough to put his dirty shirt to bed and jump down the clothes-shute?"

We have no doubt that Margaret Remsburg will be filling Mme. Schumann-Heick's place - playing and singing.

Marguerite D.: He has feet like hams.
Garnet P.: Sorta swift, eh?

D. Peacock: What's two divided by one?
R. Perry: Divorce.

Reed A.: ''Do fairy stories always start with 'Once Upon a Time?'"
Mother: "No, some start with 'I have to study at the library tonight.'"

Ouch!

First Soak (on street car): Shay, what time ish it?
Second Soak (looking at his watch): August.
F. S.—Hic, Great Caesar Thash where I get off.

Spare me my blushes, cried the actress, as the villain made off with her rouge box.

There was an old man of Tarentum
Who gnashed his false teeth till he bent 'em
And when asked for the cost of what he had lost
Said, I really can't tell for I rent 'em.

Hill: Hello, Dale, anything on hand this afternoon?
Dale: Yep, warts, as usual.

In these days of equal rights the slogan for married life seems to be "He who hesitates is bossed."

Mistress: Nora, that wasn't your Paddy I saw you talking to just now.
Nora: No, mum; that's a new one. Paddy's away on his vacation.
But is that fair, Nora?
Ah, mum, when the Pat's away, the Mike will play.

Speak to these five minutes and you will hear them say—

Mr. Haight: "I don't mean this for sarcasm,—but figuratively speaking,—
Miss Moore: "Tres dificile, Mlle.—"
Mr. Smith: Well,—you know, that's the thing of it.
Mlle. Bellinghausen: Oh Mon Dieu! Bete! Fou!
Mrs. Stevens: Now boys and girls, young people, etc.
Miss McEvoy: Now, don't you see.
Miss Eddy: Now, when I was in Greece—
Miss McCoy: All bodies erect and all minds alert—

A Draught

Bob R.: "Youv'e got a bad cold, Les."
Lester W.: "Yeh."
Bob: "How'd you get it?
Lester: "I slept in the field last night and someone left the gate open."

Ginger Snaps

Many infants are raised on the bottle. We have our doubts if Carleton Putnam will ever grow.

If a woman can't get the man she wants, may Allah have pity on the man she gets.

All work and no pay makes "jack" a rare article.

When the two sweet things become engaged, the girl may have something on her finger but the man has a lot more on his hands.

The fool in olden days used to blow out the gas but today he steps on it.

Were Henry Ford to be elected President the historians could hardly be blamed for referring to this as the Tinlizabethan Era

Love never dies in a woman's heart. There is always a spark left for some fellow to fan a flame.

Boost—

Last year the Rockford High School Annual won first places in state and national contests. A great deal of the credit for our excellent showing is due to the business men and women who advertised in our pages.

We are not insensible to their kindly support, but the best proof that we can give them of our appreciation is an equally generous support of their business organizations.

REO 7 PASSENGER TOURING CAR

The Most Passenger Car Value That $1485 Has Ever Bought

HERE are the facts: Reo has produced—on the famous Reo "6" chassis—a distinctive model that is really a remarkable achievement in 7-passenger design, and the embodiment of 18 years successful manufacturing.

—With the most consistent "6" in motordom making 50 horse-power available for the long grind, the fast spurt, the mountain climb, or the quick stop-and-go of city driving,

—With seating capacity for seven full-sized occupants, without crowding,

—With an inner-frame mounting of power units, so as to dare the shocks of the roughest roads,

—With a wheelbase of a rational length for both riding qualities and parking convenience.

Price is $1485 at Lansing; add Federal Tax

The Heavyweight Football Season

Those who took the knocks in practice and helped make the team we had are: E. Storer, J. Fridley, Ox Johnson, P. Winters, D. Dean, O. Hawkinson, K. King, C. Griftner, H. Shields, G. Johnson, N. Traponi. On these men we place the hope of future victory.

Thusly ended the season.

The Coach. Never before has Rockford High School had such an earnest coach as the one of the 1922 season. Mr. Beyer grew thin, lost sleep, wept, and fought to make the Heavies a winning team. Every one of the team from the meanest scrub to the Captain expressed gratitude to Beyer for his work.

The Team. Never before has Rockford High School had such a team of eleven players and fight. We can not say that this team is better than the last for Rockford has always had Star Teams.

The Scrubs. The Captain of the team mentioned this once, "I have not seen scrubs stay out all season before." The substitutes and those who took knocks in practice wish to say that they never had such excellent response from a coach or team before. They thank you.

Clothes don't make the man, but they are a factor in getting results.

Printed matter doesn't make a firm, but it helps. Have it well dressed.

YOU might be rated high in Bradstreets or Duns, and selling articles of merit. Does your printed matter by its proper dress convey these facts?

Appearances Do Count—

GOOD firms and their splendid products often receive a questionable "quality" rating because of the poor appearance of their printed matter.

MANY specimens of printed matter made in our shop by talented craftsmen are open for your critical inspection. These are so correctly dressed—inks, papers, types, illustrations—that they readily convey the best impression.

What we have done for others, we can do for you. Ask us today, we can assist you.

The Rockford High School Annual published last year took first prize in Illinois state competition against ninety entries. It was a product of our press.

Things Never Found

A fisherman that doesn't lie.
A pretty girl with brains.
A writing desk that doesn't rock.
A concise woman.
A happily married man.
A weak-voiced baby.
A good conversationalist that isn't a liar.
A flapper that doesn't use cosmetics.
A boy that likes to have his face washed.
A pleasure that isn't wicked.
A golfer that doesn't use profanity.
A barber that isn't a bore.
A virtuous man.
Lovers that don't act foolish when around each other.
A girl that admits she is homely.
A reformer that doesn't make good money.
A woman that doesn't gossip.
An honest bootlegger.
A person who takes advice.
A woman that doesn't lie about her age.
A policeman who doesn't have big feet.

Jack Spratt could eat no fat;
His wife could eat no lean.
You see, they spent their money
For the jitney's gasoline.

"O stop the thief, O stop the thief:
He stole my purse, oh dear"
Thus loud the maiden cried in grief,
But no police were near.

In safety then, the thief had brought
The fat purse to his lair;
But that which most his heart had sought
Alas, it was not there.

He looked for coin, but found instead
A chamois skin and glass;
A store of powder, white and red;
Her gum, a chewed-up mass.

A phial filled with perfumed stuff,
A picture of her beau,
A handkerchief not large enough
To wipe a tear of woe.

And then he found a button-hook
And hair net for her locks,
But not a thing for which a crook
Would risk his shoes and socks.

I know now, sighed the thief at last,
As down the purse did crash,
Why Shakespeare wrote so long ago;
"Who Steals My Purse, Steals Trash."

Teacher: "Marion, how do you say 'a little piece of cheese' in French?"
Marion: "Pew, de cheese."
Teacher: "No, that's not right, Ted, you tell her the right way."
Ted: "Pew, de limberger."

Sharing the Burden

She drove him out in the country four or five miles and then stopped the car.
"Shan't we go a little further?" he asked.
"No," she responded, "I've gone far enough. Now it's up to you."

Sign in a Shoemaker's shop: "Men, women and children come in and have a fit."

Mr. Crull (to physics class): "Tomorrow we'll start at lightning and go to thunder."

Russell Erickson: "Are you the barber that cut my hair the last time?"
Barber: "No, I've only been here a year."

Warden: "Who are you and what are you charged with?"
Prisoner: "My name is Sparks, I'm an electrician and I'm charged with battery."
Warden: "Jailer, put this man in a dog cell."

Sailor, pointing to inscribed plate on deck: That's where our gallant captain fell.
Lola K.: No wonder, I nearly tripped over it myself.

Summer Fiction

Marguerite P. (glancing at summer's collection of snaps): Who's he? He looks familiar!
Dot Andrew: He was!

In the Ring

Pugilist (meeting his opponent for the first time in the ring): Glad to know yuh. Excuse the glove.

"You look sweet enough to eat,"
He whispered soft and low.
"I do," the flapper answered,
"Where do you want to go?"

Jokes

Where are you going, my pretty maid?
Wut's it to you, old dear? she said.
May I go with you, my pretty maid?
I'll tell the world yer fresh, she said.
Where is your father, my pretty maid?
You tell 'em ouija, I'm bored she said.
What is your fortune, my pretty maid?
Dry up or I'll call a cop, she said.
Then I can't marry you, my pretty maid,
I knew I could get your goat, she said.

Poem

Gather ye kisses while ye may,
Time brings only sorrow;
For the flappers who flap so free today,
Are the chaperones of tomorrow.

Rude

Elinor Desmond: What a peculiar looking thing on your upper lip.

Russell Perry: My dear girl, never knock a mustache when it's down.

Between Dances

Carl M. (with much enthusiasm): I could go on dancing with you like this forever.

Harriett: Oh, no, you couldn't possibly. You're bound to improve.

Lines

How sad the story of Jane McCleek!
Her will was strong, but her won't was weak.

Mental Magic

Garnet P.: Jim is a good fellow but he knows some of the awfullest songs—

Kate F.: Does he sing them to you?

Garnet: No, but he whistles them.

So!

"Naw—she's not two-faced."

"Zat so?"

"She wouldn't wear that one if she were."

Let'er Be

Ralph Milliman: Got any mail for me?

Postman: What's your name?

Ralph: You'll find it on the envelope.

Between Dumbs

"Egg" May: Charley, did you hear that joke about the Egyptian guide who showed some tourists two skulls of Cleopatra—one as a girl and one as a woman?

Stuke Walker: No, let's hear it.

A Bedroom Farce

Short Sheets.
I got in bed
The other night
And pulled the covers
Up and found that
My feet were out
So I got up and
Tucked the covers
In at the foot of
The bed and got back
In again and found that
The covers only
Came to my waist
And so
I pulled them up
And found that my
Feet were out again
And so I got up
And—Oh, well go
Back to the Beginning again.

"How is your flat heated?"

Graduation Gifts

Let us suggest as a graduation gift for the boy, a thin model watch, and for the girl, a ribbon wrist watch. Nothing could be more useful, or more acceptable to the young person you wish to remember.

Keep in mind, however, that in making such a purchase as this, your only safeguard lies in the character of the house you patronize.

Our watch Department is our special pride. It is the result and product of many years close study of the Watch Business.

Reliability and long service in every one we sell.

We also are showing this year an exclusive line of diamond rings, prices ranging from $50.00 to $100.00 and up.

The New Way to Save Money—
THE LINCOLN THRIFT WAY
$500 to $2500

Lincoln Thrift Accounts may be opened from $500 to $2500, depending on the amount you wish to own at the expiration of 120 months.

The Lincoln Thrift Account is a regular interest earning savings account correlated with Life Insurance.

These two great thrift agencies have been skillfully combined to afford savers the largest measure of protection and security under the workings of a most attractive method.

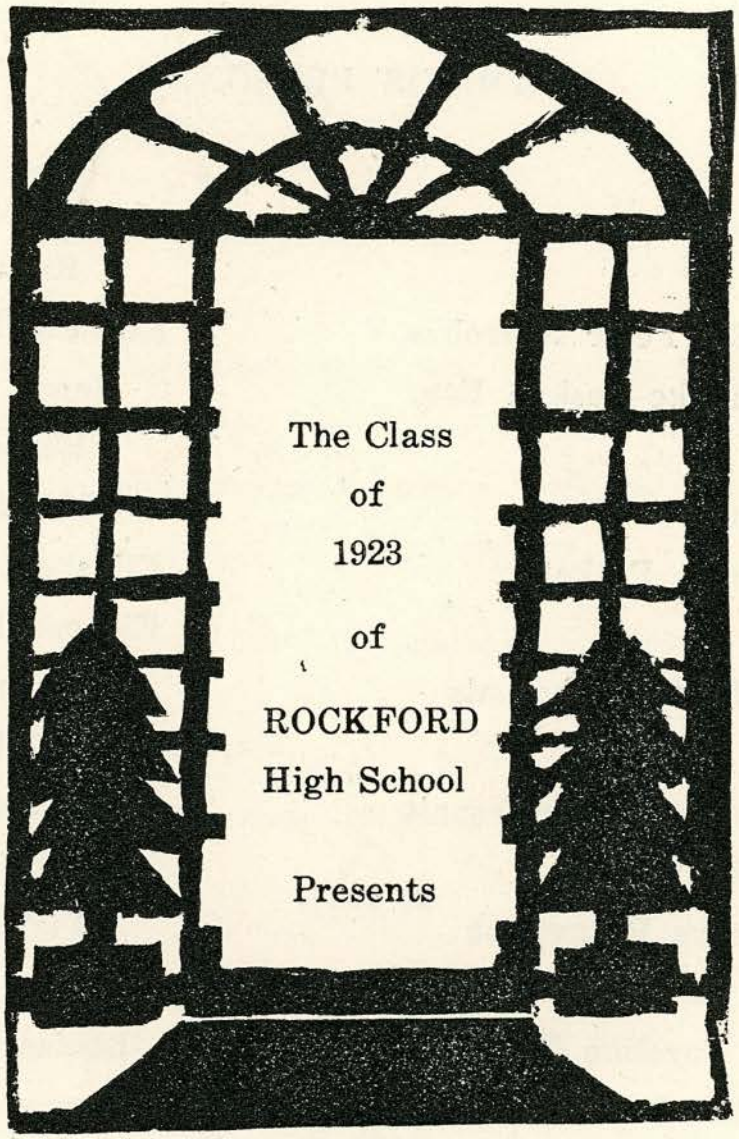

HOW THE PLAN OPERATES

The depositor (you) agrees to save a small amount each month.

Desiring to accumulate, say $1,000, you open a $1,000 Savings Account with this bank. You only deposit $7.60 a month for the savings period. Then if you will make your deposits regularly, you will have actually saved ONE THOUSAND DOLLARS.

Calendar For Senior Activities

June 1, 1923

Read carefully and keep for reference.

1. All Senior work must be completed by June 15, the Friday preceding Commencement.

Every Senior whose average was below 75 per cent in any study at the close of the Six-Weeks Finals must take a second final during the week of June 11.

In any case in which the record of the last six weeks shall fall below 79 per cent the pupil may be required at the close of the term to pass an examination on that portion of the study taken during the last semester.

No Senior, failing in a study, will be permitted to take more than two special examinations in that study, and all conditions, all work, and all examinations must be finished by Friday preceding Commencement.

2. Senior Assembly—Senior Assembly will be held June 11 during the third hour. Seniors sit two in a seat on west side of room. All pupils seated in Rooms 10 and the Auditorium are invited to this Assembly.

3. Caps and gowns are expected Thursday, June 14. They will be for rent, Thursday and Friday in the office off of the Auditorium stage, rental $2.00. Pupils who graduated in February must get caps and gowns Friday, June 15.

4. Baccalaureate Service, Sunday, June 17, at 10:30 A. M. in the Auditorium. Seniors are to meet at 10:00 o'clock in Room 12, wearing caps and gowns. Be there on time.

5. Class Day Party, Tuesday evening, June 19 in Gymnasium at 8:00 o'clock P. M. There will be an interesting program and dancing for Seniors only. If you wish to bring some one else, invitation must come from Miss Dobson.

6. Commencement, Thursday evening, June 21, at Tebala Temple, 8:00 o'clock, wear caps and gowns, no flowers. Inform friends not to send flowers or gifts to Tebala Temple. There is no place to receive them.

7. Rehearsal for Commencement, Thursday morning, June 21 at 9:00 o'clock. It is necessary that all be there promptly. No one can be excused. All speakers and musicians on the program will rehearse after general rehearsal.

8. Return caps and gowns Friday, June 22, before 1:00 o'clock. Fold neatly and pin name on each when you return it. They must be shipped back to Chicago Friday, P. M., June 22, without fail.

9. Alumni Party and reception to class of 1923, Friday evening, June 22. Program in Auditorium followed by party in gymnasium. Tickets will be given out with Commencement tickets.

10. Tickets for Baccalaureate will be given out Friday, June 15 at 3:00 o'clock in Auditorium. Practice for Baccalaureate directly afterwards, so all must be present. Girls will remain to see Miss Putnam concerning dress.

11. Tickets for Commencement will be given out June 18 at 3:00 o'clock in the Auditorium.

12. Announcements will be sold Tuesday and Wednesday, June 5 and 6, in Office off of Auditorium stage, 8 cents each. Bring exact change so as to avoid chance of mistake and to save time.

13. Senior Play, Friday, June 8, at Tebala Temple, Reserved seats, 50 cents. Tickets on sale at the High School. Reserved seats may be secured beginning at 8:00 A. M., Thursday, June 7, at Schumann Piano Co. store.
